FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS of Utah

DECLARATION

Whereas, Each Grand Lodge possesses the inherent power to form a Constitution, as the Fundamental Law of its Masonic actions, and to enact such By-laws, from time to time, as it may deem necessary for its own government, and to make such Rules and Regulations for the administration of its constituent Lodges as will insure the prosperity thereof and promote the general good of Masonry; and

Whereas, This power is the Supreme Masonic power and authority in the State of Utah, and is derived from organized Masonic bodies or constituent Lodges, through their legally constituted Representatives, and gives to this Grand Lodge all the attributes of sovereignty and government, legislative, executive, and judicial, limited only by a strict adherence to the ancient usages of Freemasonry, by the provisions of its own Constitution and Regulations; and by the provisions of its Articles of Incorporation;

Therefore, Upon these principles, which have never been disputed, the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah does hereby ordain, establish, and promulgate the following Constitution for its future government, and does enact, make and prescribe the following Rules and Regulations for the government of the Lodges under its jurisdiction:

ARTICLE I

TITLE-SEALS

SECTION 1. NAME.

This Grand Lodge shall be known by the name and style of "The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah."

SECTION 2. SEALS.

It shall have a seal, bearing such device and inscription as has been, or may hereafter be, determined, which shall be affixed to all instruments issued under its authority.

There shall also be a seal known as the "Grand Master's Seal," to be used by him on all official instruments he may issue in his capacity as Grand Master. Said seal shall forever bear the device and inscription which may be determined upon by the Grand Lodge.

ARTICLE II

SECTION 3. SHARED JURISDICTION

The Grand Lodge may elect to share such exclusive territorial jurisdiction with one other Grand Lodge by mutual consent, provided each Grand Lodge remains sovereign with sole and undisputed authority over all its members, beholden lodges, their members, and properties deriving authority from them. In addition, all provisions of the Constitution, Title II, Title III, and the Trial Code of the Grand Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, shall apply only to those lodges and members, thereof, which are chartered by said Grand Lodge.

The right of every member of a Lodge to the secret ballot for the degrees or for affiliation is inherent and absolute, and the lawful and legitimate exercise of such right shall not be questioned by the Lodge, the Master, the Grand Master, or Grand Lodge. Any member who has been actuated by unworthy motives in the exercise of this right, or who shall willfully use the ballot to interrupt the legitimate labors or mar the peace and harmony of the Lodge by exposing the character of his own vote before, at the time of, or after casting it, or who shall attempt to ascertain the character of the vote of any other member, shall be liable to Masonic discipline and punishment.

SECTION 3-7-17. DECLARATION.

Any candidate who may have received any of the degrees by false representation, or through deception, shall be subject to trial and punishment as provided in the Trial Code.

SECTION 3-7-23. OBJECTIONS AFTER BALLOT.

Any member of a Lodge of this Jurisdiction may raise well-grounded objections to the initiation or advancement of candidates in such Lodge. An objection to the advancement of an Entered Apprentice or a Fellow Craft, when made by a Mason who is not a member of the Lodge, will not be considered valid unless the objector prefers charges.

SECTION 3-7-24. OBJECTIONS TO INITIATION.

If any member in good standing of the Lodge shall express to the Master any objection to the initiation of a candidate, even after such candidate shall have been elected, such objection shall be respected, nor shall the objector's reasons be demanded by the Master or the Lodge, or his name be made known. The fact of the objection shall be entered in the minutes, and shall be the equivalent of a negative vote. The fee accompanying the petition shall immediately be returned to the petitioner with a notice of his rejection.

SECTION 3-7-25. OBJECTION TO ADVANCEMENT.

Whenever objection is made by any member of the Lodge to the advancement of a candidate therein to the second or third degree, the reason therefor must be made known to the Lodge or to the Master, and the matter shall be referred to a committee of three members, with power to inquire into such reasons. This committee shall report to the Lodge as soon as practicable. If the reasons assigned are deemed insufficient by a majority of those present and voting by written ballot, the work shall proceed as though no objection had been made. If, however, the objection appears to be well founded the candidate shall be entitled to a trial on the alleged offense.

SECTION 3-7-26. MINIMUM FEES.

No Lodge shall confer the three degrees for a sum less than fifty dollars. The apportionment of the total fee to the degrees shall be regulated by the By-laws of each Lodge.

SECTION 3-7-27. FEES FOR AFFILIATION.

No Lodge shall charge a fee for affiliation.

SECTION 3-7-28. FEES MUST BE PAID.

No Lodge shall confer any degree until the prescribed fee shall have been paid in full. No written or oral promise to pay the same shall be received in lieu thereof, nor shall any portion of the fee be remitted, either directly or indirectly.

SECTION 3-7-29. FORFEITURE OF FEES.

A Lodge may retain the Entered Apprentice fee of a candidate elected to receive the degrees if he does not present himself for initiation within a period of twelve months after election.

SECTION 3-7-30. TIME LIMIT FOR ADVANCEMENT.

A Lodge shall drop from its roll any Entered Apprentice or Fellow Craft who does not present himself for advancement within a period of two years; provided that the Grand Master, on application of the Lodge involved, may extend the time within which a candidate of such Lodge must present himself for advancement, but such extensions may be granted only with respect to a candidate in the Armed Forces of the United States, or who is absent from the United States, or because of illness is unable to present himself for advancement.

SECTION 3-7-31. HOW REINSTATED.

(a) An Entered Apprentice or a Fellow Craft who has been dropped from the rolls of a Lodge constituent to this Grand Lodge shall nevertheless remain subject to the Masonic Jurisdiction of such Lodge until waiver therefrom has been granted as hereinafter provided.

(b) An Entered Apprentice or a Fellow Craft who has been dropped may be reinstated by a favorable unanimous vote by secret ballot at a regular meeting of the Lodge upon a written application for reinstatement. Such application shall take the course provided for petitions for affiliation and the balance of the fee shall accompany the petition.

(c) However, any such Entered Apprentice or Fellow Craft who shall, before being advanced to the next degree, move permanently to another Grand Jurisdiction recognized by this Grand Lodge or within the jurisdiction of another Utah Lodge, may, with a view to advancement in the jurisdiction of his residence, apply to the Lodge in which he was initiated or passed, for a waiver of Jurisdiction and a certificate of the fact that he has received the degree or degrees conferred by such Lodge, and the Lodge may, on a favorable unanimous vote by secret ballot of the members present at a regular meeting, waive jurisdiction and grant such certificate.

(d) This will not only settle the question of jurisdiction over an applicant who has received less than all three degrees in one of our Lodges, but also provide a procedure whereby such an applicant who, after being dropped from the rolls of that Lodge in pursuance of Section 3-7-31, has permanently moved his residence to the Jurisdiction of another Lodge either in this Grand Jurisdiction or in another Grand Jurisdiction recognized by this Grand Lodge, can take, on his own motion, appropriate steps to secure a waiver of such jurisdiction so as to clear the way for his seeking advancement in such other Lodge.

Such examination shall be held either in open Lodge or before a committee of not less than two appointed for that purpose. The proficiency of the candidate shall be decided by the Master.
- (b) Each Master Mason must present himself for examination as to his proficiency in the Master Mason degree, including the Test Oath, within sixty days after having been raised, unless for good cause further time is granted by the Master.

Documentary evidence alone shall not be sufficient to justify avouchment. In addition to strict trial and due examination, no Mason shall be permitted to visit a Lodge in this Grand Jurisdiction unless he can and does produce written evidence under the seal of his Lodge that he is in good standing and this evidence must be attested by the Grand Secretary's signature and the Seal of the Grand Lodge under which the Lodge of the visitor is working; provided, that it shall not be necessary to have such evidence so attested by the Grand Secretary when the visitor comes from a Junction where this is not required.

If the provisions pertaining to dimits have been fully met, a Certificate of Good Standing shall be issued, which shall be valid for ninety (90) days only, or until the expiration of the period for which the applicant's dues are paid, whichever is shorter. This Certificate shall accompany the petition for affiliation. If the petitioner is elected and notice thereof is given to the issuing Lodge while such certificate is still valid, the Lodge issuing such certificate shall immediately upon receipt of notice, and without further payment of dues, forward the dimit to the Lodge in which application for affiliation was made. If, however, the issuing Lodge does not receive notice of such election while such certificate is still valid, dimit shall be issued in case of subsequent election only if the requirements pertaining to dimits are fully met. The Lodge may in such case waive payment of such portion of the dues then due from such member as it may deem equitable and just. Should the ballot be unfavorable on the petition for affiliation, applicant's membership shall remain in the Lodge which issued the Certificate of Good Standing.

SECTION 3-10-3. DATE.

If such member has been suspended for nonpayment of dues by any other Lodge in which he holds plural membership he shall not be reinstated in any Utah Lodge in which he holds plural membership until such other Lodge shall have voted favorably upon his reinstatement and so advised the Utah Lodge in which he has plural membership. I. CONCERNING GOD AND RELIGION

A Mason is oblig'd by his Tenure, to obey the moral Law; and if he rightly understands the Art, he will never be found a stupid Atheist, nor an irreligious Libertine. But though in ancient Times Masons were charged in every Country to be of the Religion of that Country or Nation, whatever it was, 'yet 'tis now thought more expedient only to oblige them to that Religion in which all men agree, leaving their particular Opinions to themselves; that is, to be good Men and true, or Men of Honour and Honesty, by whatever Denominations or Persuasions they may be distinguish'd; whereby Masonry becomes the Center of Union, and the means of conciliating true friendship among persons who must otherwise have remained at a perpetual Distance.

II. OF THE CIVIL MAGISTRATE SUPREME AND SUBORDINATE

A Mason is a peaceable Subject to the Civil Powers, wherever he resides or works, and never to be concerned in Plots and Conspiracies against the Peace and Welfare of the Nation, nor to behave himself undutifully to inferior Magistrates; for as Masonry hath been always injured by war, Bloodshed, and Confusion, so ancient Kings and Princes have been much dispos'd to encourage the Craftsmen, because of their Peaceableness and Loyalty, whereby they practically answer'd the Cavils of their Adversaries and promoted the Honour of the Fraternity who ever flourish'd in Times of Peace. So that if a Brother should be a Rebel against the State, he is not to be countenanc'd in his Rebellion, however he may be pitied as an unhappy Man; but, if convicted of no other crime, though the loyal Brotherhood must and ought to disown his Rebellion, and give no Umbrage or ground of political Jealousy to the Government for the time being, they cannot expel him from the Lodge, and his relations to it remain indefeasible.

III. OF LODGES

A Lodge is a place where Masons assemble and work: Hence that Assembly, or duly organiz'd Society of Masons, is call'd a Lodge, and every Brother ought to belong to one, and to be subject to its By-laws and General Regulations. It is either particular or general and will be best understood by attending it, and by the Regulations of the General or Grand Lodge hereunto annex'd. In ancient Times, no Master or Fellow could be absent from it, especially when warn'd to appear at it, without incurring a severe Censure, until it appear'd to the Master and Wardens that pure Necessity indeed him.

The Persons admitted Members of a Lodge must be good and true Men, free-born, and of mature and discreet Age, no Bondmen, no Women, no immoral or scandalous Men, but of good Report.

IV. OF MASTERS, WARDENS, FELLOWS, AND APPRENTICES

All preferment among Masons is grounded upon real Worth and personal Merit only; that so the Lords may be well served, the Brethren not put to shame, nor the Royal Craft despis'd: Therefor no Master or Warden is chosen by Seniority, but for his Merit. It is impossible to describe these things in writing, and every Brother must attend in his Place, and learn them in a way peculiar to this Fraternity. Only Candidates may know, that no Master should take an Apprentice, unless he has sufficient Employment for him, and unless he be a perfect Youth, having no Maim or Defect in his Body, that may render him incapable of learning the Art of serving his Master's Lord, and of being made a Brother, and then a Fellow-Craft in due time, even after he has served such a Term of Years as the Custom of the Country directs; and that he should be descended of honest Parents; that so, when otherwise qualify'd he may arrive to the Honour of being the Warden, and then the Master of the Lodge the Grand Warden, and at length the Grand Master of all the Lodges, according to his Merit.

No Brother can be a Warden until he has pass'd the part of a Fellow-Craft; nor a Master until he has acted as a Warden, nor Grand Warden until he has been Master of a Lodge, nor Grand Master unless he has been a Fellow-Craft before his Election, who is also to be nobly born, or a Gentleman of the best Fashion, or some eminent Scholar, or some curious Architect, or other Artist, descended of honest Parents, and who is of singular great Merit in the Opinion of the Lodges. And for the better, and easier, and more honourable Discharge of his Office, The Grand-Master has a Power to choose his own Deputy Grand Master, who must be then, or must have been formerly, the Master of a particular Lodge, and has the Privilege of acting whatever the Grand Master, his Principal, should act, unless the said Principal be present, or interpose his Authority by a letter.

These Rulers and Governors, supreme and subordinate, of the ancient Lodge, am to be obey'd in their respective Stations by all the Brethren, according to the old Charges and Regulations, with all Humility, Reverence, Love, and Alacrity.

V. OF THE MANAGEMENT OF THE CRAFT IN WORKING

All Masons shall work honestly on working Days, that they may live creditably on holy Days; and the time appointed by the Law of the Land, or confirm'd by Custom, shall be observ'd.

The most expert of the Fellow-Craftsmen shall be chosen or appointed the Master, or Overseer of the Lord's Work; who is to be call'd Master by those that work under him. The Craftsmen are to avoid all ill Language, and to call each other by no disobliging Name, but Brother or Fellow; and to behave themselves courteously within and without the Lodge.

The Master, knowing himself to be able of Cunning, shall undertake the Lord's Work as reasonably as possible, and truly dispend his Goods as if they were his own; nor to give more Wages to any Brother or Apprentice than he really may deserve.

Both the Master and the Masons receiving their Wages, justly, shall be faithful to the Lord, and honestly finish their Work, whether Task or, Journey; nor put the Work to Task that hath been accustom'd to Journey.

None shall discover Envy at the Prosperity of a Brother, nor supplant him, or put him out of his Work, if he be capable to finish the same; for no Man can finish another's Work so much to the Lord's Profit, unless he be thoroughly acquainted with the Designs and Draughts of him that began it.

When a Fellow-Craftsman is chosen Warden of the Work under the Master, he shall be true both to Master and Fellows, shall carefully oversee the Work in the Master's Absence to the Lord's profits; and his Brethren shall obey him.

All Masons employ'd shall meekly receive their Wages without Murmuring or Mutiny, and not desert the Master till the Work is finish'd.

A Younger Brother shall be instructed in working to prevent spoiling the Materials for want of Judgment, and for increasing and continuing of Brotherly Love.

All the Tools used in working shall be approved by the Grand Lodge.

No labourer shall be employ'd in the proper Work of Masonry; nor shall Free Masons work with those that are not free, without an urgent Necessity; nor shall they teach Labourers and unaccepted Masons, as they should teach a Brother or Fellow.

VI. OF BEHAVIOR, VIZ.

1. IN THE LODGE WHILE CONSTITUTED.

You are not to hold private Committees, or separate Conversation, without leave from the Master, nor to talk of anything impertinent or unseemingly, nor interrupt the Master or Wardens, or any Brother speaking to the Master: Nor behave yourself ludicrously or jestingly while the Lodge is engaged in what is serious and solemn; nor use any unbecoming Language upon any Pretense whatsoever; but to pay due Reverence to your Masters, Wardens, and Fellows, and put them to worship.

If any Complaint be brought, the Brother found guilty shall stand to the Award and Determination of the Lodge, who are the proper and competent Judges of all such Controversies (unless you carry it by Appeal to the Grand Lodge), and to whom they ought to be referr'd, unless a Lord's Work be hindered the meanwhile, in which Case a particular Reference may be made; but you must never go to Law about what concerneth Masonry, without an absolute Necessity apparent to the Lodge.

2. BEHAVIOR AFTER THE LODGE IS OVER AND THE BRETHREN NOT GONE.

You may enjoy yourselves with innocent Mirth, treating one another according to Ability, but avoiding all Excess, or forcing any Brother to eat or drink beyond his Inclination, or hindering him from going when his Occasions call him, or doing or saying anything offensive, or that may forbid an easy and free Conservation; for that would blast our Harmony, and defeat our laudable Purpose. Therefore no private Piques or Quarrels must be brought within the Door of the Lodge, far less any Quarrels about Religion, or Nations, or state Policy, we being only, as Masons, of the Catholic Religion above mention'd; we are also of all Nations, Tongues, Kindreds, and Languages, and are resolved against all Politics, as what never yet conduc'd to the Welfare of the Lodge, nor ever will. This Charge has been always strictly enjoin'd and observed; but especially ever since the Reformation in Britain, or the Dissent and Secession of these Nations from the Communion of Rome.

3. BEHAVIOR WHEN BRETHREN MEET WITHOUT STRANGERS, BUT NOT IN A LODGE.

You are to salute one another in a courteous manner, as you will be instructed, calling each other Brother, freely giving mutual Instructions as shall be thought expedient, without being overseen or overheard, and without encroaching upon each other, or derogating from that Respect which is due to any Brother, were he not a Mason: For though all Masons are as Brethren upon the same Level, yet Masonry takes no Honour from a Man that he had before; nay, rather it adds to his Honour, especially if he has deserved well of the Brotherhood, who must give Honour to whom it is due, and avoid ill Manners.

4. BEHAVIOR IN PRESENCE OF STRANGERS NOT MASONS.

You shall be cautious in your Words and Carriage, that the most penetrating Stranger shall not be able to discover or find out what is not proper to be intimated; and sometimes you shall divert a discourse, and manage it prudently for the Honour of the worshipful Fraternity.

5. BEHAVIOR AT HOME, AND IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD.

You are to act as becomes a moral and wise Man; particularly not to let your family, Friends, and neighbors know the Concerns of the Lodge, &c., but wisely to consult your own Honour, and that of the ancient Brotherhood, for Reasons not to be mentioned here. You must also consult your Health, by not continuing together too late, or too long from home, after Lodge Hours are past; and by avoiding of Gluttony or Drunkenness, that your Families be not neglected or injured, nor you disabled from working.

6. BEHAVIOR TOWARDS A STRANGE BROTHER.

You are cautiously to examine him, in such a Method as Prudence shall direct you, that you may not be impos'd upon by an ignorant false Pretender, whom you are to reject with Contempt and Derision, and beware of giving him Hints of Knowledge.

But if you discover him to be a true and genuine Brother, you are to respect him accordingly; and if he is in want, you must relieve him if you can, or else direct him how he may be reliev'd: You must employe him some Days, or else recommend him to be employ'd. But you are not charged to do beyond your Ability, only to prefer a poor Brother, that is a good Man and true, before any other poor People in the same Circumstances.

Finally, all these Charges you are to observe, and also those that shall be communicated to you in another way; cultivating Brotherly Love, the Foundation and Cape-stone, the Cement and Glory of this ancient Fraternity, avoiding all Wrangling and Quarrelling, all Slander and Backbiting, nor permitting others to slander any honest Brother, but defending his Character, and doing him all good Offices, its far as is consistent with your Honour and Safety, and no farther. And if any of them do you Injury, you must apply to your own or his Lodge; and from thence you may appeal to the Grand Lodge at the Quarterly Communication, and from thence to the annual Grand Lodge, as has been the ancient laudable Conduct of our Fore-fathers in every Nation; never taking a legal Course, but when the Case cannot be otherwise decided, and patiently listening to the honest and friendly Advice of Master and Fellows, when they would prevent your going to Law with Strangers, or would excite you to put a speedy Period to all Law-Suits, that so you may mind the Affair of Masonry with more Alacrity and Success; but with respect to Brother or Fellows at Law, the Master and Brethren should kindly offer their Mediation, which ought to be thankfully submitted to by the contending Brethren; and if that submission is impracticable, they must however carry on their Process, or Law-Suits, without Wrath and Rancor (not in the common way), saying or doing nothing which may hinder Brotherly Love, and good Offices to be renew'd and continu'd; that all may see the benign Influence of Masonry, as all true Masons have done from the Beginning of the World, and will do to the End of time.

Amen, so mote it be

We owe this famous version of the Old Charges to the fact that His Grace The Duke of Montagu, Grand Master 1721-2, found fault with the manuscript versions of the Constitutions (I. e. Legendary History of the Fraternity) previously in use, and ordered Rev. James Anderson "to peruse, correct, and digest, into a new and better Method the History, Charges and Regulations, of the Ancient Fraternity." The progress of the revision is shown by the following extracts from the second (1738) edition of Anderson's book:

29 Sept., 1721.- "His Grace's Worship and the Lodge (Grand Lodge) findings fault with all the Copies of the old Gothic Constitutions, order'd Brother James Anderson, A. M., to digest the same in a new and a better Method."

27 Dec., 1721.- "Montagu, Grand Master, at the Desire of the Lodge, appointed 14 learned Brothers to examine Brother Anderson's Manuscript, and to make Report."

25 March, 1722.- "The said Committee of 14 reported that they had perused Brother Anderson's Manuscript, viz: the History, Charges, Regulations and Master Song, and after some Amendments had approv'd of it: Upon which the Lodge desir'd the Grand Master to order it to be printed."

17 January, 1722-3.- "G. Warden Anderson produced the new book of Constitutions now in Print, which was again approv'd with the Addition of the ancient Manner of Constituting a Lodge." W. H. Upton, Code Commissioner Grand Lodge of Washington, 1897.

The Masonic Foundation Of Utah

The Masonic Foundation of Utah, authorized by Grand Lodge at its Fifty-Seventh Annual Communication, was Incorporated under the laws of Utah, February 13, 1929. It is a Nonprofit, tax exempt Corporation under the Internal Revenue Code.

The Foundation is an arm of Grand Lodge composed of all members entitled to vote in Grand Lodge, with responsibility for the management of its business and accomplishment of its intentions entrusted to, and imposed upon, a Board of Trustees. These are the Grand Master and Grand Secretary, during their term of office, and three others elected from the membership of Grand Lodge, one each year at the Annual Communication for a three year term. This Board is charged with faithful performance of all duties related to the Foundation, receipts of funds, investment thereof, and carrying out the objectives for which the Foundation was organized.

The Tax Reform Act of 1969 and subsequent amendments as passed by Congress places strict guidelines on the operation and distribution of income of public and private Foundations. The regulations, as promulgated by the Internal Revenue Service, require that income be distributed only to qualified nonprofit, tax exempt organizations for philanthropic, charitable, or educational purposes. Any distribution to non-qualified organizations or individuals is strictly prohibited and places severe penalties on the Trustees as well as the Foundation.

This, the Tax Reform Act, limits some of the original purposes of the Foundation. Distributions to Masonic Lodges, Masonic related organizations, or individual Masons are considered "Self Dealing" and would invoke the aforementioned penalties. Despite these limitations, the Foundation is accomplishing a tremendous amount of relief to the distressed and educational opportunities to our youth throughout this jurisdiction.

Initially our capitalization in 1929 came from the Grand Lodge charity fund of $16,296.60. The fund was maintained by appropriating, at each Annual Communication of Grand Lodge, a sum of not to exceed 10% of its annual receipts. At the 1972 Annual Communication of Grand Lodge it was suggested that the annual 10% be dropped and it has not been collected since. The dedicated support of Masons has resulted in a steady growth of the Foundation's assets and made it unnecessary to access or appropriate funds from constituent Lodges. Response to the Grand Master's appeal each year has been generous and substantial funds have come from bequests, memorials, wills and trusts.

Every Utah Mason should be proud of this charitable Foundation which can be important to the future of our Fraternity.

*This Authorized Statement must be read before filling out the Petition.INFORMATION FOR APPLICANT

The question of becoming a Freemason is a matter for very serious consideration and since you have expressed desire to be a member, we deem it advisable that you should be informed on certain points which may affect your decision to apply.

In all ages Freemasonry has insisted that men should come to its doors unsolicited and entirely of their own free will and accord. Moreover, those joining in the hope of selfish personal gain will be bitterly disappointed.

Freemasonry has for its foundation the great basic principles of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man. No Atheist can be made a Mason.

Freemasonry is not in any way an insurance Society nor does it provide benefits in case of sickness or death. In a correct and broad sense it is a charitable association, but it only extends such charity as it feels willing and able to grant, not as a matter or right to the recipient, but in its desire to do good and exemplify its moral teachings. The yearly dues are entirely inadequate to permit other than temporary assistance to a member or his family in case of need.

A universal custom requires that, through oral instruction, certain portions of the work is to be memorized after each degree, and before a candidate is advanced.

Every Member is expected to pay promptly the annual dues fixed by his Lodge.

The Fee for the Three Degrees is $_____, payable with the Petition; or $_____ with the Petition, $_____ Before receiving the Fellowcraft Degree, and $_____ before receiving the Master Mason Degree. After becoming a Master Mason the Annual Dues are $_____, payable in advance.

REFERENCE OF PETITION FOR THE DEGREES

_____ Lodge No. _____, F. & A. M.

Salt Lake City, Utah, _____

Brothers: _____

(The Secretary will make this note in triplicate, listing all three of the committeemen, and check one name of each, indicating to whom it is to be sent.)

You have been appointed to act as a Committee of Investigation on the petition for the Three Degrees, received by this Lodge at its last regular meeting, presented by

_____.

A copy of his petition is enclosed and must be returned with your report.

You will diligently inquire into the moral, mental, and physical qualifications of the applicant, his economic situation, and whether he has been an actual resident of the State of Utah for six months and within the jurisdiction of this Lodge for six months.*

*If the Committee finds the applicant disqualified by lack of residence or physical disability, and finds no other objection, it should make a special report. The Master may then direct the withdrawal of the petition, as provided by Section 3-7-8, G. L. Code.

Your investigation should be personal and as searching as possible, in order to determine whether the applicant is proper Masonic material.

The suggestions listed on the reverse side of this sheet are not all-inclusive, but should aid you in your investigation.

Ballot on this petition will be at the regular meeting,

Secretary

Please mail or hand your report to the Secretary as soon as your investigation is completed, at least two days before the meeting.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE MEMBER

I hereby affirm that I have made a strict and careful examination into the character, reputation, and qualifications of the above name applicant and report _____ favorably.

(Date) _____, (Signed) _____,

If for any reason you cannot act on this committee, inform the Secretary or Master immediately. Failure to report is unfair to the applicant and the Lodge.

SUGGESTIONS TO INVESTIGATION COMMITTEE

The best interests of the Masonic Fraternity demand a prompt and careful investigation of the character and standing of those seeking admission. Many points other than those listed here will suggest themselves to you in your investigation.

A personal interview with the applicant is desirable. It is proper either to call on him or to ask him to get in touch with you.

Always contact his recommenders and those to whom he refers.

Satisfy yourself of his mental and physical ability to earn a livelihood, to conform substantially to the ceremonies and to be instructed in the mysteries of Masonry.

Check carefully on his residence. One may have been employed and lived in the city for more than six months and yet not have established "legal residence." Grand Lodge Code, Sec. 3-16-12: "the residence of an applicant for the Degree is defined to be his permanent settled domicile, or fixed abode, from choice; and , as a rule, is identical with his legal residence."

Ascertain his credit standing if possible. Is he a man of his word? Is he intemperate or an habitual gambler? Make a general inquiry among his friends, neighbors, and business associates.

If married, is applicant living with and supporting his family? Does his wife approve the idea of his entering the Fraternity? Not always will it be found necessary to interview the wife but in some cases it may be essential. Use your judgment after the interview with applicant. If his parents are living, what is their attitude in the matter? Usually this can be determined by questioning the applicant.

It is essential to know his belief in a Supreme Being.

If the applicant has resided in other parts of this state or within the past few years resided in another state, the first named on the committee should write or contact the Secretary of the Lodge there for a report on his character, and previous conduct.

RETURN THE COPY OF THE PETITION WITH YOUR REPORT.

TRIAL CODE of the M. W. GRAND LODGE of FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS OF UTAH

As approved by Grand Lodge at the Annual Communication of January 22 and 23, 1951.

The symbol (*) is shown immediately following the title of each Section that has been revised or added to.

SECTION 200. MASONIC OFFENSES. (*)

Masonic Offenses are defined to be:

First: A violation of the laws of the United States, or of the State in which the offender may reside or be, involving commission of a felony or other offense involving moral turpitude.

Second: Willful violation of the offender's obligations as a Mason, of the Constitution or laws of Grand Lodge or of the by-laws of the Lodge in which the offender holds membership.

Third: Any other act which tends to impair the standing or reputation of the Fraternity before the world.

Fourth: Any misrepresentation made for the purpose of obtaining the degrees of Freemasonry.

SECTION 201. JURISDICTION OF OFFENSES.

(a) Every Lodge has jurisdiction over its own members wheresoever dispersed. If the accused is a member of a Lodge of this Jurisdiction, the charges shall be sent to that Lodge for trial; but if the Lodge waives its right, or refuses or fails to entertain said charges at the next regular meeting thereof, the Lodge within whose jurisdiction the alleged offense was committed shall entertain said charges and proceed in the premises as in this Trial Code provided.

(b) Every Lodge has jurisdiction over all non-affiliated and sojourning Masons residing, or charged with committing a Masonic offense, within its jurisdiction. If the accused is such a Mason, charges may be preferred either in any Lodge having jurisdiction over the place of such residence or sojourn, or in any Lodge within whose jurisdiction the alleged offense took place; and the Lodge in which such charges are first filed shall have exclusive jurisdiction in the premises. Whenever the attention of the Grand Secretary shall be called to any Masonic offense committed by any non-affiliated or sojourning Mason, the same shall be referred to the Grand Master of his action thereon.

SECTION 202. PROCEDURE

Whenever a Mason is charged with any Masonic offense, the proceedings in the premises shall be conducted substantially in accordance with the rules and procedure in the Trial Code provided.

SECTION 203. CHARGES, HOW PREFERRED. (*)

(a) If a Masonic offense be committed without the Lodge, or when the Lodge is not in session or at labor, charges against the offender may be preferred by any Master Mason or Master Masons. If no other accuser makes charges, and it be brought to his attention that there is probable cause to believe that a Masonic offense had been committed, it shall be the duty of the Junior Warden to prefer charges.

(b) If any Masonic offense be committed in the Lodge while in session or at labor, the Master may direct the filing of charges, or may summarily dispose of the offense by requiring the offender to show cause why he should not be dealt with by the Lodge without further delay. In the latter case, he shall cause the alleged offender to stand, shall state to him the nature of the offense charged against him, and by whom preferred, and permit him to offer such extenuation or excuse for his conduct as he may wish to make. If the accused denies the charge, and demands trial, charges shall be filed and the matter disposed of as herein otherwise provided. On any such summary disposal of such matter, the offender may be barred from further attendance at the meeting, suffer reprimand or such other punishment, short of suspension, expulsion or fine, as the Master may impose with the approval of a majority of the members present.

(c) Proceedings against the Master of Lodge may be taken only in the manner thereafter provided.

SECTION 204. FORM AND FILING OF CHARGES. (*)

All charges of Masonic offenses, except those committed in open Lodge, shall be in writing and signed by the accuser, shall specify with common certainty the nature of the act or acts charged as constituting the offense, and state the time and place where the same was committed. Such charges shall be filed with the Master or the Secretary. The Master in any case shall examine the charges before further action thereon, and may, if he deems them insufficient to state a Masonic offense or wanting in certainty, return them to the accuser or accusers for amendment, if such be possible, to correct such defect. Upon his determining that the charges as filed, or amended state a Masonic offense and are sufficiently specific to inform the Lodge and the accused of the nature and details of the offense charged, the charges shall be filed with the Secretary, and they shall be read by him at the next regular meeting of such Lodge, and entered in full upon its minutes. Notice shall be given all members of the Lodge by the Secretary that election of a Trial Commission to hear and act upon such charges will take place at the next regular meeting.

SECTION 205. TRIAL COMMISSION. (*)

Trial of any such charges shall be by a Trial Commission, consisting of five members of the Lodge in good standing, who shall be elected by a written ballot and by a majority vote of those present, at the next regular meeting of the Lodge following the reading of such charges. The elective officers and the members of the Committee on Grievance and Appeals of Grand Lodge, the Master, Junior Warden, and Secretary of the Lodge, the accuser or accusers, the persons designated by the Master to act as prosecuting attorney and defense counsel and any person who may be known to have such knowledge of the facts respecting the charges as to qualify him as a witness, shall not be eligible to sit on such Trial Commission. Upon any new trial of the charges, no person who actively participated in the former trial may act as Commissioner. If any such ineligible person be selected as a Trial Commissioner he shall make the fact known at the earliest time possible, and his place on such Commission shall be filled by the Lodge, by election in the same manner at its next regular meeting, or if no such meeting occurs prior to the trial by appointment by the Master, concurred in by a majority of the remaining Trial Commission.

SECTION 206. ORGANIZATION OF COMMISSION. (*)

The master shall fix the time for trial and give prompt notice thereof to the members of such Trial Commission. The Trial Commission shall assemble for the trial at such time and place within the jurisdiction of the Lodge and convenient to the parties as the Master shall indicate. Three members of the Commission shall constitute a quorum, except that less than a quorum may adjourn from time to time. If at any meeting a Commissioner is present who was absent at some previous meeting, the substance or summary of all proceedings had and evidence taken shall be read or be made known to him in the presence of the Commission before the trial proceeds. The Master shall preside over the Commission, and shall decide all questions of Masonic Law which may arise during the trial. All meetings of the Trial Commission shall also be attended by the Junior Warden, or some other member of the Lodge appointed by the Master, who shall act as prosecuting attorney; by a defense counsel to be appointed by the Master; and by the Secretary, or some other member of the Lodge appointed by the Master, who shall act as recorder and keep a correct and full record of the proceedings and trial.

Only the Master, the Wardens, and Secretary of the Lodge, similar officers of any Lodge of which the accused is a member, the prosecutor, defense counsel, a shorthand reporter who must be a Mason, and the witnesses for the prosecution and defense shall be present at any hearing held as such Commission, and the Commission may require any witness or witnesses who have not testified to remain without the place of hearing.

If for any reason the Master or any other trial officer shall be unable or disqualified to perform the duties assigned him herein, the Master may appoint a Past Master of such Lodge, if one be available, otherwise any Master Mason, a member of the Lodge, to perform the duties of such absent or disqualified officer. Disqualification shall consist of such knowledge of the facts involved as to qualify the officer as a witness.

SECTION 207. COUNSEL

In addition to the prosecuting attorney and defense counsel herein provided for, any Master Mason in good standing may, at the request of the accuser or the accused, appear as counsel and assist in the prosecution or defense.

NOTICE 208. NOTICE AND SUMMONS. (*)

The defendant shall be served at least thirty days prior to the time set for trial with a copy of the charges against him, certified as correct by the Secretary, together with a summons setting forth the time for trial, requiring him to file his plea at least five days prior to the date of such hearing, and directing him to appear at the time of such trial under penalty of being proceeded against in his absence. Service may be made upon him in person, or by leaving such papers at his residence enclosed in a sealed envelope directed to him, the process server to be a Master Mason designated by the Master for such duty, or by the Secretary forwarding such papers to him by registered mail, with return receipt demanded, at his last known place of abode, within or without the State. If the accused resides without the State, such letter shall be sent by air mail. Service by mail shall be complete at the end of the twentieth day after the date appearing on such return receipt. If for any reason service cannot be made upon the accused in time, the Master shall fix a new date for trial, and service shall then be had as above provided.

SECTION 209. CONTINUANCES AND RECESSES. (*)

Trials shall be had at the time and place set forth in the summons served upon the accused, unless the Trial Commission shall continue the same upon application of the defendant, or the prosecuting attorney, for good cause shown. Any application for continuance shall be made only after the due notice of intent to apply for the same shall have been served upon counsel for the opposing party. The Commission may also recess the trial, when once commenced, from time to time, but such recesses shall not extend the trial for more than ten days subsequent to its commencement unless the Master, for good cause shown, shall permit such extension. No continuance shall be granted by reason of the defendant absenting himself from the trial, but defense counsel appointed by the Master shall, and other defense counsel may, be present at all proceedings had in the defendant's absence.

SECTION 210. PLEAS BY DEFENDANT – CONTINUANCE – TRIAL PROCEEDINGS. (*)

(a) The defendant shall file his written plea to such charges with the Secretary at least five days prior to the time set for trial. The plea of the defendant may be “not guilty”, “guilty”, or an admission of the charges made in whole or in part and such matter in avoidance of culpability with respect thereto as the defendant may deem matter of defense.

(b) If the plea be “guilty”, the Trial Commission nevertheless shall receive such evidence as it may deem requisite, or as either the prosecution or defense shall offer, bearing on the extent of guilt, and which it may deem proper to consider in deterring the judgment.

(c) If the plea be other than “guilty”, trial shall proceed at the time fixed, or at the time to which the same shall have been continued.

SECTION 211. WITNESSES.

The Master shall, at the request of either party, summon such witnesses as are Masons residing or being within the jurisdiction of the Lodge to appear and testify before the Commission. Witnesses who are Master Masons in good standing shall testify upon their honor as such; all others shall testify under oath or affirmation. No Commissioner selected to try charges shall be permitted to testify upon such a trial.

SECTION 212. DEPOSITIONS.

(a) Whenever the attendance of a witness, who is a Mason, cannot be procured, his testimony may be taken by deposition before the Master or Secretary of any Lodge within whose jurisdiction he resides or is sojourning, upon such notice to the adverse part as the Master of the Lodge in which the trial is to held shall fix; and the attendance of such witness may be compelled by summons of the Master of the Lodge of which he is a member or of the Lodge within whose jurisdiction he resides or is sojourning. His testimony shall be reduced to writing, signed by him, and authenticated by the certificate of the Master or Secretary before whom it was taken, under the seal of their Lodge.

(b) The testimony of witnesses who are not Masons may be taken, upon the application of the party desiring such testimony, by deposition before some office authorized by law to administer oaths, and at such time and place, and upon such notice to the adverse party, as shall be designated by the Master.

SECTION 213. JUDGEMENT. (*)

After all the testimony shall have been received the Commissioners shall proceed to deliberate upon and to determine their verdict and sentence, with none present but themselves. The judgment of a majority of the Commissioners shall be the decision and judgment of the whole, provided, that in determining the sentence to be imposed three votes shall be necessary for expulsion. The judgment of the Commissioners shall be signed by them all, and at the next regular meeting of the Lodge the Master shall read the same in full, pronounce the result, and shall direct the Secretary to record the same as judgment of the Lodge, and file the record for safekeeping in its archives. If such judgment is adverse to the accused, it shall not be made known until so read and pronounced by the Master.

SECTION 214. PENALTIES. (*)

(a) The penalties which may be inflicted are reprimand in open Lodge, suspension, or expulsion. All sentences of suspension shall be for an indefinite period. After the judgment is pronounced the Secretary shall forthwith notify the defendant of the judgment and of his rights to appeal.

(b) If the sentence is reprimand, the Master shall summon the defendant to appear at the next regular meeting of the Lodge, when the sentence shall be carried into effect; provided, that, if the defendant be a member of a Lodge of this Jurisdiction other than the Lodge in which he was tried, then, and in that event, with the consent of the Master of the Lodge in which the defendant was tried, the sentence may be carried into effect in the Lodge of which he is a member.

(c) If the defendant shall file notice of appeal from any such sentence, within ten days after the same shall have been so pronounced in open Lodge, the judgment shall be stayed, but the defendant shall be debarred from all Masonic rights and privileges pending final disposal of such charges. Appeal filed later shall not operate to stay judgment. The sentence, in the absence of such appeal, shall go into effect immediately.

SECTION 215. TRANSMITTAL OF RECORDS. (*)

(a) In all cases where an appeal is filed, or where the sentence is suspension or expulsion, the Secretary, as promptly as possible, shall prepare a transcript or the record of the trial, including a full copy of any appeal which has been filed, and transmit the same to the Grand Secretary with dispatch.

(b) In all cases where the defendant was a member of a Lodge other than the Lodge in which he was tried, the Master shall cause the Secretary to transmit certified copies of the judgment to the Secretary of the Lodge of which the defendant was a member, and to the Grand Secretary of the Jurisdiction. If appeal has been taken within ten days after pronouncement of judgment, such notice shall state the fact, and that execution of sentence thereby is suspended, but that the defendant is deprived of Masonic rights and privileges pending such appeal.

(c) In case of any modification of the judgment or sentence upon appeal or review, or in case of restoration after judgment and sentence, notice thereof shall be given to the party, and shall also be transmitted as provided, in (a) and (b) of this Section.

SECTION 216. APPEALS. (*)

Appeals must be in writing, and if made subsequent to the filing of the transcript with the Grand Secretary, shall be filed with him, a copy thereof being served upon the Master or Secretary of the Lodge. One appeal only will be allowed per conviction. For purposes of this section, the term "appeal" shall refer to the legal process where a Mason who has been convicted of a Masonic offense may apply to the Grand Master for a review of his Masonic trial proceeding. Appeals may be filed at any time not later than thirty days after pronouncement of the judgment.

SECTION 217. PROCEDURE ON APPEAL OR REVIEW. (*)

Upon receipt of any such transcript of record by the Grand Secretary, and of any notice of appeal, he shall transmit the same promptly to the Committee on Grievance and Appeals. All such cases shall be subject to review by such Committee, upon the record sent up and such affidavits, or other documents established as genuine, by oath or otherwise, to be the satisfaction of the Committee, as may be submitted and such oral testimony as the Committee may permit. In all cases where appeal has been made, and in any other case where the Committee shall determine that justice so requires, a hearing shall be given to the parties, notice thereof and of the time and place where the same is to be had to be served upon the accused and the Secretary of the Lodge by ordinary mail. The Committee may grant such continuance as justice may require. The Committee shall report its findings and recommendations at the Annual Communication of Grand Lodge occurring next after it receipt of such transcript; provided that if such transcript is received within less than thirty days of such Annual Communication and, upon application by the committee, the Grand Master shall determine the time for consideration of such matter to be too short for due consideration, such findings and recommendations may go over to the next Annual Communication of Grand Lodge. Grand Lodge thereupon may affirm, reverse, or modify such judgment, or set same aside and direct that a new trial be had. Its decision shall be final and conclusive. If a new trial has been had, the proceedings after judgment therein shall be the same as herein provided for first review.

SECTION 218. RESTORATION AFTER SUSPENSION. (*)

The Lodge of which a suspended person was a member may at a regular meeting annul any sentence of suspension pronounced by itself and restore such person to all his Masonic rights and privileges; provided that notice of such proposed action shall have been given at the regular meeting next preceding. Restoration after suspension shall be by affirmative written ballot of two-thirds of the members present, and the Secretary shall promptly notify the restored party and the Grand Secretary.

There is no limitation to the number of times the question of restoration may be raised and voted upon, provided that new and material evidence not previously considered by the Lodge and/or Grand Lodge are presented by the suspended or expelled person. All applications for restoration shall comply with the foregoing requirements of this Section. Expelled persons may be restored only by Grand Lodge, as hereafter provided.

SECTION 219. RESTORATION BY GRAND LODGE. (*)

Whenever any suspended Mason shall have made application to the Lodge of his membership for restoration, and has met with refusal, or in case the Lodge of his membership shall have ceased to exist, he may petition Grand Lodge for restoration. Notice of such petition shall be given to the Lodge of his membership, if in existence, and also to the Lodge which suspended him, if in existence, at least sixty days prior to the date of the Annual Communication of Grand Lodge next succeeding. Such petition shall be referred to the Committee on Grievance and Appeals for recommendation and shall be heard at the first Annual Communication of Grand Lodge occurring not less than sixty days subsequent to the filing of such petition. Persons who have been expelled may seek restoration in the same manner except that no prior application to the Lodge which expelled him, or to the Lodge of his membership, shall be made. Restoration to membership in good standing in the Fraternity so ordered by Grand Lodge shall not restore any such applicant to membership in the Lodge to which he formerly belonged, but the Grand Secretary shall issue him a demit showing him to be in good standing as an unaffiliated Mason in Utah, and thereafter he shall have the same status as any other unaffiliated Mason.

SECTION 220. NOTICES. PROOF OF SERVICE. (*)

Whenever notice herein is required to be given and the time, manner, or form thereof is not provided, it shall be sufficient if the notice be in writing, shall be delivered to the Grand Secretary as to all matters pertaining to the Lodge, that such notice shall state intelligibly the matter with respect to which notice is given and time, if limited, in which action is to be taken respecting the said matter. Proof that notice has been given may be made by receipt of the person served therewith, showing the date of receipt and his official title, if any, or by a certificate of the officer of any Lodge or of Grand Lodge, or affidavit of any other person, setting forth the fact of such service. Notice shall be deemed complete from date of service.

Charges may be preferred against the Master of a Lodge by any three members thereof for abuse of his power, for violation of the Constitution or Regulations, or for un-Masonic conduct of any kind, which charges shall be in writing over their signatures, and shall be presented to Grand Lodge, if in session, or to the Grand Master during vacation.

SECTION 222. TRIAL COMMISSION. (*)

Upon receipt of such charges, Grand Lodge, if the same be received by it while in session, otherwise the Grand Master, shall cause at least five Masters or Past Masters to assemble as a Trial Commission to hear evidence respecting such charges, and to give judgment thereon, and shall appoint a prosecuting attorney and defense counsel.

SECTION 223. ORGANIZATION OF COMMISSION.

MASONIC FUNERAL SERVICE

The Ceremonies to be observed at Masonic Funerals are highly appropriate and should be made impressive. They are performed as a solemn duty and as a token of respect and fraternal affection to the memory of a departed brother.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

No brother shall be buried with Masonic honors unless he was at the time of his death a Master Mason in good standing. The Worshipful Master may decline to give Masonic burial to a deceased member or sojourner whose conduct in life reflected discredit upon the Fraternity. An Entered Apprentice or a Fellow Craft shall not be allowed in the procession as a Mason at a Masonic Funeral.

The Master of a Lodge, upon being notified of the death of a Brother who had expressed a wish for a Masonic funeral service, or whose family indicates such a desire on their part, shall make all suitable arrangements and in due time shall convene his Lodge and conduct the funeral, except:

Upon the death of a sojourning Brother, who had expressed a wish to be buried with Masonic ceremonies, or whose family expresses such a wish, the duty of arranging for the funeral devolves upon the Master of the Lodge within whose jurisdiction the death has occurred. If more than one Lodge in the place, then the duty will be performed by the several lodges in turn, unless other arrangements are made.

Other organizations may attend, in a body, the funeral services of a Mason and should be accorded every courtesy. The body of the deceased, however, must be in the charge of the Lodge having jurisdiction, and the services conducted in all respects as if none but Masons were present. A Lodge may conduct either the public or interment portion of the funeral service, or both, as requested. After the Masonic services have commenced there can be no intermingling of any other ceremonies with the Masonic services. It is permissible, though, to allow suitable eulogies to be delivered, at the appropriate time therefor as specified in this ritual, by one or more speakers, if the family requests it, keeping in mind that Masonic tradition emphasizes brevity in the non-ritualistic portions of the ceremony. Such speakers may or may not be Masons and no regard need be paid to their religious or fraternal affiliations, but no sectarian or doctrinal discourses shall be permitted. It is likewise permissible, after the Masonic service is concluded, to allow a dedication of the grave or other ceremonial by another organization, in which case the Master, instead of dismissing those present, will announce the conclusion of the Masonic service stating that the other ceremonies will follow, whereupon the Lodge will break formation and make way for such other services but should remain at the grave until such ceremonies are concluded. It is not permissible for a Masonic Lodge to appear as such at a funeral entirely conducted by another organization, or to act simply as an escort at such a funeral; but where the services at the cemetery are to be conducted by the Lodge, it may escort the body to and from the place where the public services are to be held.

MILITARY PARTICIPATION

In connection with a Masonic service, this is usually confined to covering the casket with a flag, firing of a salute, sounding taps, and folding of the flag and presenting it to a family member.

The flag is usually placed on the casket when the casket is closed for the last time just before the public service commences. Everything else should be removed except the Masonic apron which may be left under the flag at the head of the casket and remain there until it is removed and handed to the Master at the grave, at which time the flag may be folded back sufficiently to remove the apron and allow the Master to replace the apron at the proper time. The Master will then again cover the apron with the flag. When the memorial roll is deposited it should be placed under the flag.

The firing of the salute and the sounding of taps should follow the benediction and response at the end of the Masonic service at the grave.

If the deceased was a Grand Officer or a Past Elective Grand Officer, the present Grand Officers should be invited to attend the funeral. In case of the presence of the Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master, or a Grand Warden, the Master of the Lodge having jurisdiction should invite the Grand Officer present who has attained the highest rank to conduct the services.

DRESS CODE

The proper dress to be worn at a Masonic funeral is black or dark clothing, a white shirt and a dark tie, a black or dark hat, and a plain white apron, which must be worn on the outside of the coat or overcoat. Officers conducting a funeral shall wear their official jewels.

PALLBEARERS

The pallbearers (usually six in number) should be appointed by the Master except when the Lodge is to conduct only the interment service. The Master should, however, consult members of the family before appointing the pallbearers and should appoint those preferred by them. Honorary pallbearers may be permitted, if specially requested, and may or may not be Masons. Honorary pallbearers should be seated before the Lodge enters in places prepared for them where the public services are to be held, unless all of the honorary pallbearers are Masons, in which case they may march in and march out immediately after the active pallbearers.

LODGE EQUIPEMENT

The Book of Holy Writings should be opened. The three Great Lights should be trimmed with black crepe, neatly tied with a narrow white ribbon, and placed on a board or cushion covered with black material, properly arranged for carrying. The Great Lights should be borne in a funeral procession by a member of the craft appointed by the Master.

A white apron may be placed on the casket during the public service.

In the absence of remains the public service in the Lodge Room, House, or Church may be used for a Memorial Service.

OPENING PROCEDURES

When opening a Lodge of Master Masons for funeral services, one of two methods will be selected:

- (1) A Lodge may open and close for each funeral service conducted, using the regular ritual for such opening and closing.
- (2) A "Lodge of Sorrow" may be opened (using the regular ritual for such opening and closing) and remain open throughout the entire year.

OPENING FOR INDIVIDUAL SERVICES

One of the essentials in a Masonic funeral is that the service shall be conducted by a Lodge which has been duly opened, however, in case a Lodge is to conduct a funeral service in another city, or at a point remote from the Lodge Room, and it is not feasible or convenient for all the brethren to meet in the Lodge Room, the Master or either of the Wardens, or a Past Master, with two other brethren may open the Lodge, at the regular meeting place, repair to the place where services are to be held, and conduct services, after which the same officers who opened the Lodge, or others qualified to act in their places shall return to the Lodge Room and close the Lodge in full form.

OPENING A LODGE OF SORROW

A Lodge may open a "Lodge of Sorrow" as soon as practical or necessary after the annual installation; and immediately after opening, the "Service in the Lodge Room" will be performed.

A "Lodge of Sorrow" is symbolically at labor when functioning, and is at refreshment when dismissed by the Marshal at the conclusion of the services. If a "Lodge of Sorrow" is opened, it will not be required to have a Tyler's register present at the services, but the Secretary shall record the minutes of each Masonic Funeral Service and read them at the first regular meeting thereafter.

The "Lodge of Sorrow" will be closed (if one has been opened) upon the closure of the Annual meeting in December. If a "Lodge of Sorrow" was opened, a Tribute will be given, at the Annual meeting, to all Brothers of that particular Lodge who have passed away during the previous Masonic year, and for all Brothers for whom a courtesy service was performed by that Lodge. As a part of the Tribute, the Memorial Roll of those departed Brothers will be read.

MEMORIAL ROLL

The Secretary should prepare two copies of the Memorial Roll, one to be attached to the minutes of the meeting and the other one to be placed upon the casket. IT SHOULD CONTAIN THE NAME, AGE, AND RESIDENCE OF THE DECEASED, THE NAME OF THE LODGE OF WHICH HE WAS A MEMBER, AND HIS MASONIC RECORD. The Master should sign the same and it should be attested by the Secretary under the seal of the Lodge. The Memorial Roll shall be read at the public service or at the grave.

The Brethren should uncover when the casket is being carried through the lines and while at prayer. In the case of inclement weather, however, the Master should direct the men present not to uncover, since it is most important not to let any of the Brethren or friends suffer as the result of any unnecessary exposure to the weather.

If it is ascertained that the remains of a Brother are to be sent to some other place for interment, the Master may, out of respect to the memory of the deceased, open the Lodge and escort the remains to the railway depot, or other convenient place, and render the family or friends such assistance and courtesies as may be deemed necessary.

SUGGESTIONS TO THE MASTER

Get in touch with the family immediately, if possible by a personal visit, and ask how the Lodge may be of service.

If a Masonic funeral is desired (and it is proper to inquire if such is the wish, but never to urge or ask that the Lodge be permitted to conduct the service) the following information may be helpful.

1. If music is desired, there are two places provided for it in the ritual.
2. The speaker should be informed when they are to speak, and that there is no other place in the service where a eulogy or a personal word may be spoken, and suggestion offered that the remarks be limited to approximately ten minutes.
3. Direct the members to leave the ritual cards in the lodge room and not to take them to the hall or to the grave.
4. Have at least two Brethren, clothed with aprons, in the corridors to direct those attending to the proper hall, and the others to act as ushers when necessary.
5. Assign someone to see that the seats are properly placed in the room where the public service is to be held.
6. Even though the ritual is memorized, the open book should be held in the hand and in sight, and that the public will know it is a prescribed ritualistic service. For the sake of proficiency and impressiveness, the officers should study and read their parts aloud

before conducting a funeral service. The Master should commit to memory as directed in the "SERVICE AT THE CEMETERY OR TOMB", and also the committal paragraph which begins "Forasmuch, etc."

7. The Brethren should be seated during the public service, whenever possible. The Master should stand during the ritualistic service, but may take his seat during the reading of the memorial roll, the eulogy, and music.
8. When the brethren are required to stand they should not be placed between the audience and the speakers.
9. The Master shall not wear a hat during any of the public portions of a funeral service, except when inclement weather makes it advisable for all to remain covered at the grave. Under no circumstances should the Master wear his silk hat outside of the Lodge room.

SUGGESTIONS TO THE MARSHAL

The Marshal should:

1. Form the procession in proper order.
2. Be familiar with arrangements for all public portions of the services so he will know how to direct to the best advantage, the movements of the Lodge outside the Lodge room and the placing of the Brethren while the services are in progress.
3. Make certain, also that the Mortician is advised as to the movements the Masonic service requires so that he can handle his arrangements accordingly.

SERVICE IN THE LODGE ROOM

The burial of a deceased Mason is Masonic Work; and during the entire service the Lodge is at labor. (see Section 3-17-3 of the Code of the Grand Lodge, F. & A.M. of Utah.)

The Master will open the Lodge on the Master Mason Degree, (See special prayer on page 2 of Monitor), state the object of the meeting, (see official cipher as to wording), appoint a Marshal, Bible Bearer, and pallbearers, and will also instruct the Lodge in the Committal Honors given at the close of the ceremonies at the grave, and will give such other instructions as may be deemed necessary. The Master calls up the Lodge and proceeds as follows:

CEREMONY IN LODGE ROOM OR AFTER "LODGE OF SORROWS" IS OPENED

MASTER. - Man that is born of a woman hath but a short time to live, and is full of misery. He cometh up, and is cut down like a flower; he fleeth as it were a shadow, and never continueth in one stay. In the midst of life we are in death. Of whom, then, may we seek for succor, but of Thee, O Lord?

My Brethren, where is the man that liveth that shall not see death?

RESPONSE BY THE BRETHREN. - Man walketh in a vain shadow; he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.

MASTER. - When our brother died, did he carry nothing away with him?

RESPONSE BY THE BRETHREN. - He fulfilled his destiny. Naked he came into the world, and naked he has departed out of it.

MASTER. - Hear, then the conclusion of the whole matter: It is the Lord only that can give, and it is the Lord that hath taken away. Blessed be the name of the Lord. Let us endeavor to live the life of righteousness, that our last end may be like his.

RESPONSE BY THE BRETHREN. - God is our God, for ever and ever. He will be our guide and support, even through the dark valley of the shadow of death.

MASTER. - I heard a voice from Heaven, saying unto me: "Write from henceforth, Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord! Even so, saith* the Spirit, for they rest from their labors."

 Pronounced "seth".*

Almighty Father, in Thy hands we leave, with humble submission, the soul of our Brother.

Brethren, let us pray.

The Master or the Chaplain then offers the following or some other suitable prayer:

"Most glorious and merciful Lord God, our Heavenly Father! Author of all good, and Giver of all mercy! Pour down Thy blessing upon us and strengthen our solemn engagements with the ties of affection. May this solemn occasion draw our attention toward Thee, the only refuge in time of need, that, when we are about to quit this transitory scene, the enlivening prospect of Thy mercy may dispel the gloom of death; that after our departure hence in peace, we may be received into Thine everlasting kingdom, and there enjoy, in union with our departed friends, the just reward of a well spent and virtuous life. Amen.”

BRETHREN. - So mote it be.

(End of Lodge Ceremony)

ORDER OF PROCESSION

The Marshal shall form the procession to enter the Funeral Hall as follows:

1. The Tyler with drawn sword.
2. The Three Great Lights carried by a Brother.
3. Deacons, carrying rods. (Rods used only in Temple)
4. The Master (and Grand Master if present), escorted by the Marshal.
5. The Senior and Junior Wardens.
6. The Secretary and the Treasurer.
7. The Chaplain.
8. The Clergyman or speaker if a Master Mason.
9. The Pallbearers (if Master Masons)
0. The Stewards.

(The officers named above to maintain distance of 6 to 10 feet apart.)

1. Present and Past Grand Lodge Officers.
2. Master Masons properly clothed.

If the deceased was a member of other Bodies affiliated with Masonry and the members of these Bodies should unite in the procession, clothed as such, all such Bodies should follow the Lodge.

The Marshal has no fixed station, but is free to move about as his duties require. Upon arrival at the Public Service he shall be seated behind the J.D.

A Masonic procession should be governed by the discipline of a Lodge Room. Therefore, the utmost decorum should be observed until the Lodge is closed.

The Officers present shall take positions during the public service as follows:

(Masonic East)

S.D. TREAS. CHAP. S.W. W.M. *G.M. J.W. SECY. J.D.

(Masonic West)

*(Grand Master or his representative if present)

During the public service in the Lodge room, the pallbearers will be seated on either side of the casket, or may be seated together at some convenient location. The speaker shall be seated in the Southeast.

The Grand Officers and Brethren should be seated in places provided for them. If, however, it is necessary for them to remain standing they should be placed behind the Officers conducting the services; and care should always be taken in placing the Brethren to leave at least two sides of the room open for the audience and for the family.

Upon the conclusion of the public services, the Marshal will escort the Master to the outside of the building where the services are held, the other Officers and the Brethren led by the Deacons following in the same order as that in which they entered; and, upon arriving outside the building, the lines will form on either side, facing inward, and the Brethren will remain at attention and uncovered, except during inclement weather, while the casket is borne to the hearse and the family has also passed through the lines. As soon as the casket has been placed in the hearse and the family seated in their cars, the Lodge should break ranks and the Brethren enter their cars, taking places in the funeral procession in advance of the hearse, if possible, so as to permit the Lodge to reach the cemetery in advance of the hearse and mourners.

Upon arriving at the place of interment, the Lodge should form lines, facing inward, between the hearse and the grave and should stand at attention and uncovered while the casket is carried through the lines to the grave. The Officers will assume the same positions in one or more lines, except that the Tyler, Bearer of Great Lights, and the Stewards will be at the foot of the grave (West). The Marshal will escort the Master and the other Officers at the head of the casket. The other Officers will, so far as possible, take the same positions as at the public services. The pallbearers will group themselves at the foot of the grave immediately behind the Bible Bearer and Tyler. The Brethren will take places back of the pallbearers, or the officers, leaving both sides of the grave open for the family and friends. These arrangements will, of course, have to be varied as conditions may require, but care should always be taken to leave sufficient space for the family and friends.

After the conclusion of the services at the grave, the Lodge will break ranks, repair to their cars, and return to the Lodge Room without further ceremony. Upon arrival at the Lodge Room, the Lodge shall be closed in full form. (This will be done only if a Lodge of Sorrow has not been opened.)

PUBLIC SERVICE IN THE LODGE ROOM, HOUSE, OR CHURCH

SUITABLE MUSIC MAY BE RENDERED AS LODGE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS ENTER

After all have reached their places the Master will direct all to be seated and will then proceed with the services as follows:

MASTER. - Family, Brethren and Friends, the service we are about to conduct is a Ritualistic Ceremony authorized by the Grand Lodge Free and Accepted Masons of Utah. This service is being conducted by the officers and members of _____ Lodge No. ____ .

MASTER. - Bless the Lord, O my soul and all that is within me, bless His holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul,

And forget not all His benefits;

Who forgiveth all thine iniquities;

Who healeth all thy diseases;

Who redeemeth thy life from destruction;

Who crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies.

God is our refuge and strength.

A very present help in trouble.

Therefore will we not fear, though the Earth do change, and though the mountains be moved in the heart of the seas.

In thee, O Lord, do I put my trust; let me never be ashamed;

Deliver me in Thy righteousness.

Bow down Thine ear unto me; deliver me speedily; Be Thou to me a strong rock, an house of defense to save me.

For Thou art my rock and my fortress.

Therefore for Thy name's sake lead me and guide me.

MASTER. - Brother Secretary, you will read the Memorial Roll.

(Secretary reads the roll) (Appropriate music/solo if desired.)

MASTER. - Lord, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is;

Let me know how frail I am.

Behold, Thou has made my days as handbreadths; and mine age is as nothing before Thee.

Lord Thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations.

Before the mountains were brought forth,

Or ever Thou hadst formed the Earth and the world,

Even from everlasting to everlasting, Thou art God.

Thou turnest man to destruction;

And sayest, Return, ye children of men. For a thousand years in Thy sight

Are but as yesterday when it is past, And as a watch in the night.

Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as asleep:

In the morning they are like grass which groweth up,

In the morning it flourisheth and groweth up,

In the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

MASTER. - The Brethren will rise. (pause)

Brother Chaplain, lead us in prayer.

CHAPLAIN. - Almighty God, we thank Thee for the hope of eternal life that Thou hast implanted in us. May this hope and may faith in Thee be richly ours. To them we cling, O Rock of Ages! Keep Thou us ever steadfast in union with Thyself.

The Brethren will join in the Lord's Prayer.

(The Lord's Prayer may be sung by the soloist if desired.)

"Our Father, which art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen!"

MASTER. - The Brethren will be seated.

MASTER. - Though life on this earth is short, yet is it immortal? The leaves of every summer fall and die, but the great forests wax and strengthen and wave in the winds of the centuries. A man dies and is gone from the places that knew him and the friends that loved him. Yet humanity goes on -- continues building its cities, its temples and its towers, -- continues weaving and spinning, working and singing, all with a high joy, as if no grave had ever been hollowed out of the breast of the green earth. Therefore, let us not fret about our own little day and the uncertainty of our own existence; but let us concern ourselves with all the world as if it were our business to look after it; let us be inspired by our immortality, not discouraged by our frailty.

So teach us to number our days, that we may get us an heart of wisdom.

O satisfy us in the morning with Thy mercy; That we may rejoice and be glad all our days. Let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us;

And establish Thou the work of our hands upon us; Yea, the work of our hands establish Thou it.

None of us liveth to himself, and none dieth to himself.

* * * No stream from its source

Flows seaward, how lonely soever its course,

But what some land is gladdened.

No star ever rose and set without influence somewhere.

Who knows what earth needs from earth's lowest creature?

No life can be pure in its purpose and strong in its strife

And all life not be purer and stronger thereby.

We ourselves can see but one side of our work and of our lives. We do not know the influences shed by our characters and the indirect results of the moral meanings of what we are doing. But God knows and shapes our ends to His purposes. Let us then so live that with God's help we may better the world for having lived in it.

(Senior Warden rises. Not necessary for Wardens to stand during ritual.)

MASTER. - What man is he that liveth, and shall not see death? Shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave?

SENIOR WARDEN. - I will ransom thee from the hand of the grave; I will redeem thee from death.

MASTER. - As for man, his days are as grass; as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth. For the wind passeth over it, and it is not, and the place thereof shall know it no more.

SENIOR WARDEN. - Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear Him. For He knoweth our frame;

He remembereth that we are dust.

MASTER. - How intimate is the connection between death and life? Everywhere death is the minister of life, and life sustains and renews itself by death. Man dies daily, and lives because he dies. Throughout all nature, death is literally swallowed up of life; life is most manifestly and gloriously the conqueror of death.

Death is another life. we bow our heads At going out we think, and enter straight Another golden chamber of the King's,
Larger than this, and lovelier.

There shall no tempest blow,
No scorching noontide heat;
There shall be no more snow,
No weary, wandering feet;

So we lift our trusting eyes
From the hills our fathers trod,
To the quiet of the skies,
The Sabbath of our God.

(Either of these verses may be omitted if desired.)

Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter.

SENIOR WARDEN. Fear God and keep his commandments; for this is the duty of all men.

MASTER. - And what doth the Lord require of thee, O man?

SENIOR WARDEN. - To do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God. Amen.

ALL. - So mote it be.

(Solo if desired)

Here may be delivered a Eulogy or Address.

Each speaker should be introduced suitably by the Worshipful

MASTER., (who may say),

Brethren, and Friends _____ , _____ , will now address us,
(or any other words suitable to the introduction of such speaker.)

MASTER. - Brethren and Friends, this concludes our Service here. Committal services will follow at _____

(Announcement to fit the occasion.)

The Master, followed by the other officers and the Brethren, will then retire in the order set forth above.

SUITABLE MUSIC MAY BE RENDERED AS OFFICERS RETIRE

MEMORIAL SERVICE

The following may be used at a "Funeral Hall" following the normal Masonic Funeral Service (Public Service in Lodge Room, House, or Church).

This option replaces the Traditional SERVICE AT THE CEMETERY OR TOMB.

It is intended for use when the family desires a Memorial Service of a Masonic Character and where the normal graveside tribute is not appropriate. (i.e.--In case no casket is present.)

The funeral hall should be set up prior to the Memorial. A "Memorial" table should be arranged in an appropriate place to represent the casket. Upon the table may be placed various personal effects of the departed brother.

These may include but are not limited to the following:

1. Photograph
2. White Masonic Apron
3. Floral arrangement

The seating of the speakers and brethren should follow the normal form.

Following the optional speakers at the end of the "Chapel Funeral Service", the Master and/or brethren seated behind the speaker's stand will step down to the Memorial Table and proceed.

MASTER: The Brethren will rise.

Brethren, Family, and Friends: It has been a custom among the Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons from time immemorial, to assemble when requested, with the solemn formalities of the Craft, to offer a final tribute of affection for a departed Brother. In conformity with this usage, and in accordance with the duty which we owe to our departed brother, we now appear before the world to emphasize the earnest hope and belief of a Mason that he shall live again.

The apron is removed from the table and handed to the Master who continues.

(The Apron and Acacia speeches from memory)

The lambskin or white leathern apron, of which this white linen one is a representation, is an emblem of innocence and the badge of a Mason.

By it we are reminded of that purity of life and rectitude of conduct which are so essentially necessary to gaining admission to the Celestial Lodge above, where the Grand Architect of the Universe presides.

This emblem I now deposit on the memorial Table.

By this act we are reminded that through the beneficent ministry of death, our brother has reached the end of earthly labors and his account now rests with his Creator.

Taking a sprig of evergreen in his hand the MASTER continues:

MASTER. This evergreen is an emblem of our faith in the immortality of the soul. By it we are reminded that we have an imperishable part within us, which will survive death, and which will never, never, never die; and through the loving kindness of our Supreme Grand Master, we may confidently hope that, like this evergreen, our souls will hereafter flourish in eternal spring.

(Place the evergreen on the table as if it were a casket; then place the hand on the left breast; then raise it to the zenith before dropping it to your side.)

MASTER: Brother Secretary, you will deposit the Memorial Roll.

(Secretary Places Scroll on Table)

It will be but a little while until we, like our brother, whose memory we honor, shall be gathered to our fathers. Let us then not forget the lesson death teaches us, but remembering the uncertainty of life, the little value of those things for which most men strive and the infinite value of living well that we may die well, may we the more earnestly endeavor to obey God's laws and labor to do good to our fellowmen.

"So live, that when thy summons comes to join

The innumerable caravan, which moves

To that mysterious realm,

Where each shall take his chamber

In the silent halls of death,

Thou go not like the quarry slave at night,

Scourged to his dungeon,

But sustained and soothed

By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave

Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams."

Forasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God in His wise Providence to take unto himself the soul of our departed Brother, may we believe that death has no power over a faithful and righteous soul; but that, when the dust returneth to the dust as it was, the spirit goeth unto thee. With firm faith and reliance in our Supreme Grand Master of the Universe we trust that we shall meet once more in the abiding place not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Let us pray. ()

CHAPLAIN: Almighty and most merciful God, in whom we live, and move, and have our being, we do earnestly beseech Thee to bless and sanctify to us this dispensation of Thy providence.

And, O Gracious Father, vouchsafe us, we pray thee, Thy divine assistance, to redeem our misspent time; and in the discharge of the duties Thou hast assigned us in the erection of our mortal edifice, may we have wisdom from on high to direct us, strength commensurate with our tasks to support us, and the beauty of holiness to render all our performances acceptable in Thy sight.

*And, O Heavenly Father, in this dark and trying hour of sorrow, we pray that Thou wilt be the comforter of our Brother's loved ones. Administer to them, O our Father, the consolation they so sorely need.

 (This paragraph may be omitted if not suited to the circumstances.)*

And at last, when our labors on earth are ended, may we obtain entrance into that spiritual home, that house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. Amen!

MASTER: Together, Brethren.

(Then, extending their hands, palms downward, over the memorial table, the Brethren shall say--)

“His body we commit to the elements from which it came.”

(The Brethren crossing their arms on their breast, shall say --)

“His memory we cherish in our hearts.”

(Then, raising their hands, as if in supplication, the Brethren shall say)

“And his spirit we commend unto God who gave it.”

MASTER: The Lord bless us and keep us! The Lord make His Face to shine upon us and be gracious unto us! The Lord lift upon us the light of His countenance, and give us peace. Amen!

RESPONSE: So mote it be.

MASTER: Family, Brethren, and Friends, this concludes our Memorial for Brother _____.

(Suitable music may be rendered as officers retire.)

GRAVE SIDE SERVICE AT THE CEMETERY OR TOMB

*Upon arriving at the place of interment, the Lodge should form lines, facing inward, between the hearse and the grave and should stand at attention and uncovered while the casket is carried through the lines to the grave. The Officers will assume the same positions in one or more lines, except that the Tyler, Bearer of Great Lights, and the Stewards will be at the foot of the grave (East). The Marshal will escort the Master and the other Officers at the head of the casket. (in western religious traditions, the head of the grave is on the West side so the deceased would be facing East if seated. The Master along with the other officers should line up on the West Side of the Grave.)

The other Officers will, so far as possible, take the same positions as at the public services. The pallbearers will group themselves at the foot of the grave immediately behind the Bible Bearer and Tyler. The Brethren will take places back of the pallbearers, or the officers, leaving both sides of the grave open for the family and friends. These arrangements will, of course, have to be varied as conditions may require, but care should always be taken to leave sufficient space for the family and friends.

Master. - Family, Brethren, and Friends:

From time immemorial it has been the custom of the Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons to accompany the remains of a brother to their last resting place, and there to deposit them with the solemn formalities of the Craft. In conformity with this usage, and in accordance with the duty which we owe to our departed Brother, we have now assembled in the character of Masons to offer to his memory, before the world, this last tribute of our affection and to emphasize the earnest hope and belief of a Mason that he shall live again.

The apron is then taken from the casket and handed to the MASTER, who continues:

(The MASTER should commit the Apron and Acacia speeches to memory; also the committal paragraph commencing Forasmuch, etc.)

MASTER. The lambskin, or white leathern apron of which this white linen one is a representation, is an emblem of innocence, and the badge of a Mason. By it we are reminded of that purity of life and rectitude of conduct which are so essentially necessary to gaining admission to the Celestial Lodge above, where the Grand Architect of the Universe presides. This emblem I now deposit with the body of our departed Brother.

(Places it upon the casket.)

By this act we are reminded that through the beneficent ministry of death, our brother has reached the end of his earthly labors and his account now rests with his Creator.

Taking a sprig of Acacia in his hand, the MASTER continues:

MASTER. This evergreen is an emblem of our faith in the immortality of the soul. By it we are reminded that we have an imperishable part within us, which will survive death, and which will never, never, never die; and that through the loving kindness of our Supreme Grand Master, we may confidently hope that, like this evergreen, our souls will hereafter flourish in eternal spring.

In depositing the evergreen, the proper form is to extend the right hand over the casket and place the evergreen; then place the hand on the left breast; then raise it so as to point it to the zenith; and then drop it to the side, thereby signifying that we consign the body of our departed Brother to the tomb, that his memory is faithfully cherished in our hearts, and that we commend his spirit to Him who gave it.

MASTER. - Brother Secretary, you will deposit the Memorial Roll.

(Secretary also reads Memorial Roll if not previously read.)

The MASTER then proceeds with the services.

MASTER. It will be but a little while until we, like our Brother whose memory we honor, shall be gathered to our fathers. Let us then not forget the lesson death teaches us, but remembering the uncertainty of life, the little value of those things for which most men strive and the infinite value of living well that we may die well, may we the more earnestly endeavor to obey God's laws and labor to do good to our fellowmen.

"So live, that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan, which moves
To that mysterious realm,
where each shall take his chamber
in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not like the quarry slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon,
but sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams."

(A) FOR INTERMENT AT THE GRAVE

Forasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God in His wise providence to take unto himself the soul of our departed Brother, we therefore commit his body to the grave.

Soft and safe to thee, departed Brother, be this earthly bed! May the year's earliest buds unfold their beauties o'er this, thy resting place, may each springtime renew their loveliness; and here may the sweetness of the summer's last rose linger longest! With firm faith and reliance in our Supreme Grand Master of the Universe we trust that we shall meet once more in that abiding place not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens. Let us pray.

(B) FOR ENTOMBMENT IN A MAUSOLEUM OR VAULT

Forasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God in His wise Providence to take unto himself the soul of our departed Brother, we therefore, commit his body to the tomb. Here protected from the extremes of the elements may the beauties of perpetual springtime be forever present! With firm faith and reliance in our Supreme Grand Master of the Universe we trust that we shall meet once more in that abiding place not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens. Let us pray.

(C) IN CASE OF CREMATION

Forasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God in His wise Providence to take unto himself the soul of our departed Brother, we therefore, commit his body to the funeral pyre to be resolved into the elements from which it came! With firm faith and reliance in our Supreme Grand Master of the Universe we trust that we shall meet once more in that abiding place not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens. Let us pray.

The Chaplain will then offer the following prayer:

CHAPLAIN. Almighty and most merciful God, in whom we live, and move, and have our being, we do most earnestly beseech Thee to bless and sanctify to us this dispensation of Thy providence.

And, O Gracious Father, vouchsafe us, we pray Thee, Thy divine assistance, to redeem our misspent time; and in the discharge of the duties Thou hast assigned us in the erection of our mortal edifice, may we have wisdom from on high to direct us, and the beauty of holiness to render all our performance acceptable in Thy sight.

*And, O Heavenly Father, in this dark and trying hour of sorrow, we pray that Thou wilt be the comforter of our Brothers loved ones. Administer to them, O our Father, the consolation they so sorely need.

*This paragraph may be omitted if not suited to the circumstances.

And at last, when our labors on earth are ended, may we obtain an entrance into that spiritual home, that house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. Amen!

MASTER. - Together, Brethren.

Then, extending their hands, palms downward, over the grave or casket, the Brethren shall say:

“His body we commit (to mother earth); or (to the tomb) or (to the funeral pyre);

Then the Brethren crossing their arms on their breasts shall say:

His memory we cherish in our hearts.

Then, raising their hands, as if in supplication, the Brethren shall say:

And his spirit we commend unto God who gave it.

The Benediction will then be pronounced by the MASTER as follows:

MASTER. The Lord bless us and keep us! The Lord make His Face to shine upon us and be gracious unto us! The Lord lift upon us the light of His countenance, and give us peace. Amen!

RESPONSE. - So mote it be.

MASTER. - Family, Brethren, and Friends, this concludes our Masonic service. We appreciate your joining us in this tribute to our Brother.

INSTALLATION SERVICE FOR CONSTITUENT LODGES AT TYLED MEETINGS

The Installation of the Officers of a new Lodge follows immediately after the ceremony of Constitution, and the ceremony is therefore conducted by the Grand Officers, while in a previously chartered Lodge the presence of the Grand Master or other Grand Officer is not necessary. Any Master or Past Master in good standing with the assistance of an Installing Marshal, Installing Chaplain and an Installing Secretary, can lawfully conduct the ceremony of Installation. The Installing Marshal (I.M.) uses the appropriate title of the Installing Officer, (I.O.), i.e.,

Most Worshipful Grand Master	(if Installing Officer)
Most Worshipful Past Grand Master	(if Installing Officer)
Right Worshipful	(if present or past Grand Elective Officer)
Worshipful Sir	(if present appointive Grand Officer, or present or past Worshipful Master)

The Installing Officer (I.O.) will wear a hat.

This ceremony must be conducted in the presence of Master Masons only, and at a tyled meeting. The following ceremony is appropriate for installing the Officers of a newly constituted Lodge or those of a previously chartered Lodge. No portion of the ceremony may be omitted, and no innovations should be added.

Officers of a Lodge must be installed after each election or appointment to office (see Section 3-4-6 of The Code of the Grand Lodge, F.& A.M. of Utah). Officers reelected or re-appointed must be installed.

When a present Grand Officer or a past elective Grand Officer is being installed as an Officer of a Lodge, his title should be used immediately following his name.

The Installing Marshal (I.M.) will see that the following are placed on a table or stand near the East, arranged for convenient use:

Officers Jewels	Square
Rods	Compasses
Marshal's Baton	Code of the Grand Lodge of Utah
Tyler's Sword	Charter
Small Book of Holy Writing	Copy of the Lodge By-laws

Members should be appointed to serve as Senior Warden, Junior Warden, Junior Deacon, and Tyler until the new Officers are Installed.

Sufficient chairs arranged in a semi-circle should be placed West of the Altar.

All the Officers will be conducted from the Altar to the East by way of the South on the right hand side of the Altar.

Officers will be conducted to their stations or places from the East as follows:

BY WAY OF THE NORTH	BY WAY OF THE SOUTH
Senior Warden	Junior Warden
Treasurer	Secretary
Deacons	Chaplain
Organist	Marshal
Trustees	Stewards
	Tyler

At the direction of the Installing Officer (I.O.) the Installing Marshal (I.M.) conducts each Officer in turn from the semi- circle to a point directly in front of the Installing Officer. Installing Marshal presents his left arm to each Officer and conducts him to the East. Installing Marshal may be seated during the Installation of the Master. He rises when addressed by the Installing Officer after the Ancient Charges. The Deacons and Stewards are presented in pairs, the Installing Marshal walking between them.

On arriving at his station or place, each Officer will bow slightly to the Installing Marshal. (No salute).

In forming the procession, the Officers should be lined up in the West according to their stations and places, commencing with the Senior Warden.

THE TYLED CEREMONY

I.O. - Brethren, we are about to install the Officers of _____ Lodge No. _____, Free and Accepted Masons of Utah. Brother Installing Secretary, you will read the Certificate of Qualification of the Master-elect. (Installing Secretary reads Certificate.)

I.O. - Brother Installing Secretary, you will announce the names of the Officers elected and appointed to govern this Lodge. As each name is called, he will take position standing West of the Altar in front of the chairs, facing East.

(Installing Secretary reads list of Officers.)

I.O. - (will then rise and say:) Brethren of _____ Lodge No. _____, you have heard the names of the brethren who have been selected as Officers of your Lodge for the ensuing year (or term). If any member present knows of any just cause why any of the brethren should not be installed into office, he will make it known now.

(pause, I.O. continues) Installing Marshal, (who rises), are you satisfied that the Brother elected (or selected) to be Worshipful Master of this Lodge is eligible, and well skilled in the noble science and royal art?

THE WORSHIPFUL MASTER

I.M. - I am so satisfied, Worshipful Sir. (or appropriate title) (the I.M. then presents the Master-elect west of the Altar and continues) I now present to you my Worthy Brother _____ to be installed Worshipful Master of this Lodge. I believe him to be of good morals and of great skill, true, and trusty, and as he is a lover of the fraternity, wheresoever dispersed over the face of the Earth, I doubt not he will discharge his duties with fidelity.

I.O. - Brother Installing Marshal, you will cause our Brother to kneel, for the benefit of prayer, and to take his official obligation.

(As Installing Marshal causes Worshipful Master-elect to kneel, the I.O. calls up the Lodge.  The I.M. conducts Installing Chaplain to the Altar, where he kneels facing west, and continues :)

PRAYER

CHAPLAIN. Most Holy and Glorious Lord God: We approach Thee with reverence, and implore Thy blessing on this Brother elected (or appointed) to preside over this (new) Lodge, and now humbly kneeling before Thee. Fill his heart with Thy love that his tongue and actions may pronounce Thy glory. Make him steadfast in Thy service. Grant him firmness of mind. Animate his heart and strengthen his endeavors. May he teach Thy judgments and Thy laws, and be Thy true and faithful servant, bless him, O Lord, and bless the work of his hands. Accept us in mercy. Hear Thou our prayer, and grant our earnest supplications. Amen.

RESPONSE. - So mote it be.

(The Installing Chaplain will rise and return to his place; the Worshipful Master-elect still kneeling at the Altar. The I.O. standing in the East, says:)

I.O. - Brother , you will now repeat after me your official obligation:

I solemnly promise, on the honor of a Mason, that in the office of Worshipful Master of this Lodge, I will, to the best of my ability, strictly comply with the constitution, by-laws, and regulations of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, the By-laws of _____ Lodge No. _____), and all other ancient Masonic usages, so far as the same shall come to my knowledge.

Amen.

(The I.O. will return to the East.)

I.O. - The Brethren will be seated - * and the Worshipful Master will rise. (I.O. continues) My Brother, in inducting you into your office, as a symbol of the commencement (or continuation) of your government of this Lodge, I am performing a most pleasing duty. By immemorial usage, and the established landmarks of Freemasonry, you are installed Worshipful Master of this Lodge, with powers and prerogatives which are of high importance and due solemnity. The resolutions, which, I doubt not, you have formed in your own mind, that these powers shall not be abused or perverted by you, I would gladly strengthen by word of admonition.

The very consciousness of the possession of a great power will ever make a generous mind cautious and gentle in its exercise. To rule has been the lot of many, and requires neither strength of intellect nor soundness of judgment; to rule WELL has been the fortune of but few, and should be the object of an honorable ambition. It is not by the strong arm or the iron will that obedience and order - the chief requisites of good government - are secured, but by holding the key to the hearts of men.

The office of Worshipful Master is of great antiquity and respect, and is one of the highest dignities to which we may aspire. The Worshipful Master, to rule well, should possess and practice several important requisites:

As a man, he should be of approved integrity and irreproachable morals, freed from the dominion of hasty temper and ill-governed passions, of good repute in the world, and practicing, as an example to his Brethren, the cardinal virtues of TEMPERANCE, FORTITUDE, PRUDENCE, and JUSTICE.

As a citizen, he should be loyal to his government, obedient to its laws, prompt in the duties he owes to society, and a pattern of fidelity in all social and domestic relations.

As a Mason, he should cling to the old landmarks, and be sternly opposed to their infringement; be desirous to learn and apt to teach; be prompt to aid and relieve; and be ever mindful that though elevated for a time above his fellows, he is elevated by them, and should therefore cultivate everywhere and at all times the golden tenets of BROTHERLY LOVE, RELIEF, AND TRUTH.

As an Officer, he should remember, first of all, that he is an individual Mason, sharing in that respect a common lot with his Brethren, and therefore interested in the welfare of each and all; be devoid of undue ostentation and haughty overbearing; be accessible to all, cultivating the closest friendship and the most unlimited confidence with his associate officers; be eager to take counsel with his Brethren, and ready to give it; be ready to reward good; be devoid of favoritism, and wholly impartial.

Such are some of the most important qualifications which a Worshipful Master should possess, and the errors he should avoid. It may be that most, if not all of us have failed to reach this standard, but it is attainable, and be it your purpose to reach it, and to be a bright and shining example to those who shall come after you.

My Brother, previous to your investiture it is necessary that you should signify your assent to those Ancient Charges and Regulations which point out the duty of a Worshipful Master of a Lodge.

(The Master to whom these charges are addressed should signify his assent to each of them by bowing his head.)

“You promise to be a good man and true, and strictly to obey the moral law?”

“You promise to be a peaceable citizen, and cheerfully to conform to the laws of the country in which you reside?”

“You promise not to be concerned in plots and conspiracies against government, but patiently to submit to the law and the constitutional authorities?”

“You promise to pay a proper respect to the civil magistrates, to work diligently, live creditably, and act honorably by all men?”

“You promise to avoid private piques and quarrels, and to guard against intemperance and excess?”

“You promise to be cautious in your behavior, courteous to your Brethren, and faithful to your Lodge?”

“You promise to respect genuine Brethren, and to discountenance impostors, and all dissenters from the original plan of Masonry?”

“You promise to pay homage to the Grand Master for the time being, and to his officers when duly installed; and strictly to conform to every edict of the Grand Lodge, that is not subversive of the principles and groundwork of Masonry?”

“You promise a regular attendance on the committees and communications of the Grand Lodge, on receiving proper notice, and to pay attention to all the duties of Masonry on convenient occasions?”

“You agree to hold in veneration the original rulers and patrons of Freemasonry, and to their regular successors, supreme and subordinate, according to their stations?”

“You agree to promote the general good of society, to cultivate the social virtues, and to propagate the knowledge of the mystic art?”

“You agree that no visitor shall be received into your Lodge without due examination and satisfactory evidence of their having been initiated in a regular Lodge?”

“You admit that no person can be regularly made a Mason in, or admitted a member of, any regular Lodge without previous notice and due inquiry into his character?”

“You admit that no new Lodge shall be formed without permission from the Grand Lodge, and that no countenance be given to any irregular Lodge, or to any person clandestinely initiated therein, being contrary to the Ancient Charges of Freemasonry?”

“You admit that it is not in the power of any man or body of men to make innovations in the body of Masonry?”

These are the regulations of Free and Accepted Masons. Do you submit to these charges, and promise to support these regulations as Worshipful Masters have done in all ages before you?

(The Master will answer in an audible voice:)

MASTER. I do.

I.O. - Brother _____, in consequence of your cheerful assent to the charges and regulations of the Ancient Fraternity, you are now to be installed Master of this Lodge, in full confidence of your care, skill, and capacity to govern the same.

Brother Installing Marshal, you will conduct the Worshipful Master to the foot of the dais.

I.O. - My Brother, with pleasure I now cause you to be invested with the jewel of your office - The Square - (pause). As the square is employed by the operative Mason to fit and adjust the stones of a building, that all its parts may properly agree, so you as Worshipful Master of this Lodge, are admonished by the symbolic meaning of the square to preserve that moral deportment among the members of your Lodge which should always characterize good Masons.

I.O. - You will now receive the Charter and the various books and implements used in your Lodge.

(The I.M. will hand these, as they are referred to, to the Worshipful Master, who will retain them during the explanation of each by the I.O., and then return each of them to the I.M.)

THE HOLY WRITINGS - (pause) The Holy Writings, that Great Light in Masonry, will guide you to all truth; it will direct your paths to the temple of happiness, and point out to you the whole duty of man.

THE SQUARE - (pause) The Square teaches us to regulate our every action and to let our conduct be governed by the principles of Morality and Virtue.

THE COMPASSES - (pause) The Compasses teach us to limit our desires in every station, and never to suffer our passions or our prejudices to become the masters of our judgment.

THE CHARTER - (pause) The Charter which you have now received, is the authority by which this Lodge is held. As its lawful custodian, you are carefully to preserve it and duly transmit it to your successor in office.

THE CODE OF THE GRAND LODGE OF UTAH - (pause) This Code you are to search at all times. Cause it to be read in your Lodge, that none may pretend ignorance of the excellent precepts it enjoins.

THE BY-LAWS - (pause) This book contains the by-laws of your Lodge, which you are to see carefully and punctually executed.

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will conduct the Worshipful Master to a seat in the East on my right.

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will present the Senior Warden-elect.

SENIOR WARDEN

I.M. - Worshipful Sir (or appropriate title). I now present for Installation Brother _____, who has been elected (or appointed) Senior Warden of this Lodge.

I.O. Brother_____, you have been elected (or appointed) Senior Warden of this Lodge, and will be invested with the jewel of your office. (pause) The Level demonstrates that we are descended from the same stock, partake of the same nature, and share in the same hope; and though distinctions among men are necessary to perform the work of the world, yet no eminence of station should make us forget that we are Brethren; for he who is placed on the lowest spoke of fortune's wheel may be entitled to our regard, because a time will come, and the wisest knows not how soon, when all distinction but that of goodness shall cease, and death, the grand leveler of human greatness, reduce us to the same state.

Your regular and punctual attendance is essentially necessary. In the absence of the Worshipful Master you are to govern this Lodge. In his presence you are to assist him in the government of it. Hence the necessity of preparing yourself for the important duties that may devolve upon you. LOOK WELL TO THE WEST.

JUNIOR WARDEN

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will present the Junior Warden-elect.

I.M. - Worshipful Sir (or appropriate title). I now present for Installation, Brother_____, who has been elected (or appointed) Junior Warden of this Lodge.

I.O. - Brother_____, you are elected (or appointed) Junior Warden of this Lodge, and will be invested with the jewel of your office. (pause) The Plumb admonishes us to walk uprightly in our several stations; to hold the scales of justice in equal poise; to observe the just medium between intemperance and pleasure; and to make our passions and prejudices coincide with our duty. To you is committed the superintendence of the craft during the hours of refreshment. It is therefore indispensably necessary that you should not only be temperate and discreet in the indulgence of your own inclinations, but carefully observe that none of the craft be suffered to convert the purposes of refreshment into intemperance and excess.

Your regular and punctual attendance is particularly requested, and we have no doubt that you will ever be watchful, whether at labor or refreshment, that the High Twelve of observation does not find you with your work, and that of the craft you superintend unperformed.

LOOK WELL TO THE SOUTH.

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will present the Treasurer-elect.

TREASURER

I.M. - Worshipful Sir (or appropriate title) I now present for Installation, Brother_____, who has been elected (or appointed) Treasurer of this Lodge.

I.O. – Brother _____, you are elected (or appointed) Treasurer of this Lodge, and will be invested with the jewel of your office. (pause) It is your duty to receive all moneys from the hands of the Secretary; keep a just and regular account of the same, and pay them out by order of the Worshipful Master, with the consent of the Lodge. I trust that your regard for the fraternity will prompt you to the faithful discharge of the duties of your office.

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will present the Secretary-elect.

SECRETARY

I.O. - Brother _____, you are elected (or appointed) Secretary of this Lodge, and will be invested with the jewel of your office. (pause) It is your duty to observe the will and pleasure of the Worshipful Master; record the proceedings of the Lodge proper to be written; transmit a copy of the same to the Grand Lodge when required; receive all moneys paid into the Lodge, and pay them to the Treasurer, taking his receipt therefor. Your good inclination to Freemasonry and your Lodge will induce you to discharge the duties of your office with fidelity.

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will present the Trustee (or Trustees).

TRUSTEE

I.M. - Worshipful Sir (or appropriate title) . I now present for Installation, Brother _____ (or Brothers), who has (or have) been elected (or appointed) Trustee(s) of this Lodge.

I.O. - Brother _____, (or Brothers), you have been elected (or appointed) Trustee(s) of this Lodge. The Trustees wear no jewel to indicate their office because their labors are performed, for the most part, outside the Lodge room. You, with your associates, are charged with the duty of holding, taking title to and investing all the funds of the Lodge. Your election (or appointment) to this responsible office is proof of the trust reposed in you, and of the esteem in which you are held by your Brethren.

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will present the Chaplain.

CHAPLAIN

I.M. - Worshipful Sir (or appropriate title) I now present for Installation, Brother _____, who has been appointed Chaplain of this Lodge.

I.O. – Brother _____, you have been appointed Chaplain of this Lodge and will be invested with the jewel of your office. (pause) The Book of Holy Writings, which is the textbook of the Chaplain's calling, is the Great Light in Freemasonry, and forever sheds its benign rays upon every lawful assemblage of Free and Accepted Masons. Teach us from its life-giving precepts; invoke upon our labors the blessing of that Divine Being whose infinite goodness it so fully reveals and unfolds to us; and guide us by its lessons of wisdom and truth.

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will present the Deacons.

DEACONS

I.M. - Worshipful Sir (or appropriate title) I now present for Installation, Brothers _____, and _____, who have been appointed Senior and Junior Deacons respectively of this Lodge.

I.O. - Brother _____, and Brother _____, you are appointed Senior and Junior Deacons of this Lodge, and will now be invested with the jewels and rods of your office. (pause) These rods which you will bear in the performance of your duty, are the symbols of your deputed authority. It is your province to attend on the Worshipful Master and Wardens, and act as their proxies in the active duties of the Lodge. It will be your duty, Brother Senior Deacon, to carry orders from the Worshipful Master in the East, to the Senior Warden in the West, and elsewhere about the Lodge as ordered; to attend all alarms at the door of the preparation room, receive and conduct candidates; introduce visiting Brethren, and attend the Altar.

Brother Junior Deacon, it will be your duty to carry messages from the Senior Warden in the West, to the Junior Warden in the South, and elsewhere about the Lodge as directed; to attend all alarms at the door, and to see that the Lodge is tyled.

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will present the Stewards.

STEWARDS

I.M. - Worshipful Sir (or appropriate title) I now present for Installation Brother _____, and Brother _____, who have been appointed Senior and Junior Stewards respectively of this Lodge.

I.O. - Brother _____, and Brother _____, you are appointed Senior and Junior Stewards respectively of this Lodge, and will be invested with the jewels and rods of your office. (pause) These rods pertaining to your office are now entrusted to your care and are to be borne in the performance of every official duty. You are to assist the Deacons and other officers in performing their duties, and when the Lodge is at refreshment, it will be your province to extend to visiting Brethren such attentions as circumstances may suggest. Your regular and early attendance at our meetings will afford the best proof of your zeal and attachment to the Lodge.

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will present the Marshal.

MARSHAL

I.M. - Worshipful Sir (or appropriate title) I now present for Installation, Brother _____, who has been appointed Marshal of this Lodge.

I.O. - Brother _____, you have been appointed Marshal of this Lodge and will be invested with this jewel and baton, as the appropriate symbol of your office. (pause) It is your duty to form and conduct processions of the Brethren of the Lodge on all public occasions, to attend to such other duties in the practice of our rites as are prescribed for your office and as the Worshipful Master may direct.

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will present the Organist.

ORGANIST

I.M. - Worshipful Sir (or appropriate title) I now present for Installation, Brother _____, who has been appointed Organist of this Lodge.

I.O. - Brother _____, you are appointed Organist of this Lodge, and will be invested with the jewel of your office. (pause) Under the direction of the Worshipful Master you will conduct the musical services of the Lodge. As harmony is the strength and support of all institutions, so may the harmony over which you shall preside strengthen and support every gentle and ennobling emotion of the soul.

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will present the Tyler.

TYLER

I.M. - Worshipful Sir (or appropriate title) I now present for Installation, Brother _____, who has been appointed Tyler of this Lodge.

I.O. - Brother _____, you have been appointed Tyler of this Lodge and will be invested with the jewel and implement of your office. (pause) As the sword is placed in the hand of the Tyler to enable him to guard against the approach of cowans and eavesdroppers, and to see that none pass or repass except such as are duly qualified and have permission, so it should admonish us to set a guard over our thoughts, a watch over our lips, and to post a sentinel over our actions, thereby preventing the approach of every unworthy act, thought, or deed, and preserving consciences void of offense toward God and toward man.

CHARGE TO THE WORSHIPFUL MASTER

I.O. - Worship Master (who rises), the Grand Lodge having committed to your care the superintendence and government of the Brethren who compose this Lodge, you cannot be insensible of the obligations which devolve upon you as their head, nor of your responsibility for the faithful discharge of the important duties annexed to your election. The honor, reputation, and usefulness of your Lodge will materially depend upon the skill and diligence with which you manage its concerns, while the happiness of its members will be generally promoted in proportion to the zeal and ability with which you propagate the genuine principles of our institution.

For a pattern for imitation, consider the great luminary of nature, which, rising in the East, regularly diffuses light and luster to all within the circle. In like manner it is your province to spread and communicate light and instruction to the Brethren of your Lodge. Forcibly impress upon them the dignity and high importance of Masonry and seriously admonish them never to disgrace it. Charge them to practice out of the Lodge those duties which they have been taught in it, and by amiable, discreet, and virtuous conduct to convince mankind of the goodness of the institution, so that when a man is said to be a member of it the world may know that he is one to whom the burdened heart may pour out its sorrow; to whom distress may prefer its suit; whose hand is guided by justice, and whose heart is expanded by benevolence. In short, by a diligent observance of the by-laws of your Lodge, the constitutions of Masonry, and above all the Holy Scriptures which are given as a rule and guide to our faith, you will be enabled to acquit yourself with honor and reputation.

CHARGE TO SENIOR AND JUNIOR WARDENS

I.O. - Brothers Senior and Junior Wardens, (who rise) Brethren you are too well acquainted with the principles of Masonry to warrant any distrust that you will be found wanting in the discharge of your respective duties. Suffice it to say that what you have found praiseworthy in others, you should carefully imitate, and what in them may have appeared defective, you should in yourselves amend. You should be examples of good order and regularity, for it is only by a due regard to the laws in your own conduct that you can expect obedience to them from others.

You are diligently to assist the Worshipful Master in the discharge of his trust, diffusing light and imparting knowledge to all whom he shall place under your care. In the absence of the Worshipful Master, you will succeed to higher duties, your acquirements must therefore be such that the craft may never suffer for want of proper instruction. From the spirit which you have hitherto evinced, I entertain no doubt that your future conduct will be such as to merit the applause of your Brethren and the testimony of a good conscience.

CHARGE TO MEMBERS

I.O. - (after calling up the Brethren) * * * Brethren of Lodge _____ No. _____. Such is the nature of our Constitution, that as some must of necessity rule and teach, so others must, of course, learn to submit and obey. Humility in both is an essential duty. The officers who are elected and appointed to govern your Lodge are sufficiently conversant with the rules of propriety and the laws of the institution, to avoid exceeding the powers with which they are entrusted, and you are of too generous disposition to envy their preferment. I therefore trust that you will have but one aim - to please each other and unite in the grand design of being happy and communicating happiness.

Finally, my Brethren, as this association has been formed and perfected in such unanimity and concord, in which we greatly rejoice, so may it long continue. May you long enjoy every satisfaction and delight which disinterested friendship can afford. May kindness and brotherly affection distinguish your conduct as men and Masons. Within your peaceful walls may your children's children celebrate with joy and gratitude the annual recurrence of this auspicious solemnity. And may the tenets of our profession be transmitted through your Lodge, pure and unimpaired, from generation to generation.

From this happy prospect I rest assured of your steady perseverance, and conclude with wishing you all, my Brethren, joy of your Master, Wardens, and other officers and of your constitutional union as Brethren.

The I.O. removes his hat.

I.O. - Worshipful Master (who rises) I place in your hands this Gavel, the emblem of power. In the hands of the Worshipful Master it may be made an instrument of great good, or of greater evil. With it the Master governs his Lodge; and the welfare and prosperity of your Lodge, in a great measure, depends upon its judicious use. In your hands I am confident it will be wielded for the best interests of your Brethren. I now seat you in the oriental chair, and cover you with that distinction which, in this Lodge, it is alone your privilege to wear. Worshipful Master, behold your Brethren. Brethren, behold your Worshipful Master, and join me in giving Private Grand Honors.

$1 $2 $3

(After Private Grand Honors are given, the Officers of the Lodge will form a procession in the west in single or double file, and under the direction of the Installing Marshal, will pass around the Hall either once or three times, in single or double file, and form in one or two lines in front of the East, giving the salute at the direction of the Installing Marshal. The Brethren may be directed to join in giving the salute with the Officers, or immediately following. In small Lodges where space will permit, the Brethren may be invited to join in the procession.)

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will now make the proclamation.

I.M. - (who stands at his station) In the name of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, I do now proclaim the Officers of _____ Lodge No. _____, to be regularly installed.

This Proclamation is made from the East	(The Worshipful Master strikes one blow). from the West,	(The Senior Warden strikes one blow)

and from the South,	(The Junior Warden strikes one blow)
once,	(The Junior Warden strikes one blow.)
twice,	(The Senior Warden strikes two blows).
thrice,	(The Worshipful Master strikes three blows.)

All interested take due notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

I.O. - Brother Installing Marshal, conduct the Installing Chaplain to the West of the Altar for the Benediction.

BENEDICTION

Almighty and everlasting God! From whom cometh every good and perfect gift, send down upon Thy servants here assembled the healthful spirit of Thy grace, that they may truly please Thee in all their doings. Grant, O Lord, power of mind and great understanding unto those whom we have this day clothed with authority to preside over and direct the affairs of this Lodge, and so replenish them with the truth of this doctrine, and adorn them with humility of life, that both by word and good example they may faithfully serve Thee to the glory of Thy Holy name and to the advancement for all good purposes of our beloved institution.

Amen

RESPONSE - So Mote it be.

(Installing Secretary reads list of Officers.)

I.O. - (will rise and say:) Brethren and Friends of _____ Lodge No.____, you have heard the names of the Brethren who have been selected as Officers of your Lodge for the ensuing year (or term). We will now proceed to install them. Installing Marshal, (who rises), are you satisfied that the Brother elected to be Worshipful Master of this Lodge is eligible, and well skilled in the noble science and royal art?

I.M. - I am so satisfied, Worshipful Sir. (or appropriate title) (The I.M. then presents the Master-elect west of the altar and continues -) I now present to you my Worthy Brother____.to be installed Worshipful Master of this Lodge. I believe him to be of good morals and of great skill, true and trusty, and as he is a lover of the fraternity, wheresoever dispersed over the face of the Earth, I doubt not he will discharge his duties with fidelity.

Installing Chaplain. Most Holy and Glorious Lord God: We approach Thee with reverence, and implore Thy blessing on this Brother elected (or appointed) to preside over this Lodge, and now humbly kneeling before Thee. Fill his heart with Thy love that his tongue and actions may pronounce Thy glory. Make him steadfast in Thy service. Grant him firmness of mind. Animate his heart and strengthen his endeavors. May he teach Thy judgments and Thy laws, and be Thy true and faithful servant. Bless him, O Lord, and bless the work of his hands. Accept us in mercy. Hear Thou our prayer, and grant our earnest supplications. Amen.

RESPONSE. - So mote it be.

(The Installing Chaplain will rise and return to his place; the Worshipful Master-elect still kneeling at the altar. The I.O. will move to the east side of the altar, says: -)

I.O. - Brother , you will now repeat after me your official obligation:

I solemnly promise, on the honor of a Mason, that in the office of Worshipful Master of this Lodge, I will, to the best of my ability, strictly comply with the Constitution, By-laws, and Regulations of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, the By-laws of _____ Lodge No._____, and all other ancient Masonic usages, so far as the same shall come to my knowledge.

Amen.

(The I.O. will return to the East.)

I.O. - The Brethren and Friends will be seated - * and the Worshipful Master will rise. (I.O. continues) My Brother, in inducting you into your office, as a symbol of the commencement (or continuation) of your government of this Lodge, I am performing a most pleasing duty. By immemorial usage, and the established landmarks of Freemasonry, you are installed Worshipful Master of this Lodge, with powers and prerogatives which are of high importance and due solemnity. The resolutions, which, I doubt not, you have formed in your own mind, that these powers shall not be abused or perverted by you, I would gladly strengthen by word of admonition.

The very consciousness of the possession of a great power will ever make a generous mind cautious and gentle in its exercise. To rule has been the lot of many, and requires neither strength of intellect nor soundness of judgment; to rule WELL has been the fortune of but few, and should be the object of an honorable ambition. It is not by the strong arm or the iron will that obedience and order - the chief requisites of good government - are secured, but by holding the key to the hearts of men.

The office of Worshipful Master is of great antiquity and respect, and is one the highest dignities to which we may aspire. The Worshipful Master, to rule well, should possess and practice several important requisites:

As a man, he should be of approved integrity and irreproachable morals, freed from the dominion of hasty temper and ill-governed passions, of good repute in the world, and practicing, as an example to his Brethren, the cardinal virtues of TEMPERANCE, FORTITUDE, PRUDENCE, and JUSTICE.

As a citizen, he should be loyal to his government, obedient to its laws, prompt in the duties he owes to society, and a pattern of fidelity in all social and domestic relations.

As a Mason, he should cling to the old landmarks, and be sternly opposed to their infringement; be desirous to learn and apt to teach; be prompt to aid and relieve; and be ever mindful that though elevated for a time above his fellows, he is elevated by them, and should therefore cultivate everywhere and at all times the golden tenets of BROTHERLY LOVE, RELIEF, AND TRUTH.

As an Officer, he should remember, first of all, that he is an individual Mason, sharing in that respect a common lot with his Brethren, and therefore interested in the welfare of each and all; be devoid of undue ostentation and haughty overbearing; be accessible to all, cultivating the closest friendship and the most unlimited confidence with his associate officers; be eager to take counsel with his Brethren, and ready to give it; be ready to reward good; be devoid of favoritism, and wholly impartial.

Such are some of the most important qualifications which a Worshipful Master should possess, and the errors he should avoid. It may be that most, if not all of us have failed to reach this standard, but it is attainable, and be it your purpose to reach it, and to be a bright and shining example to those who shall come after you.

My Brother, previous to your investiture it is necessary that you should signify your assent to those Ancient Charges and Regulations which point out the duty of a Worshipful Master of a Lodge.

(The Master to whom these charges are addressed should signify his assent to each of them by bowing his head.)

"You promise to be a good man and true, and strictly to obey the moral law?"

"You promise to be a peaceable citizen, and cheerfully to conform to the laws of the country in which you reside?"

"You promise not to be concerned in plots and conspiracies against government, but patiently to submit to the law and the constitutional authorities?"

"You promise to pay a proper respect to the civil magistrates, to work diligently, live creditably, and act honorably by all men?"

"You promise to avoid private piques and quarrels, and to guard against intemperance and excess?"

"You promise to be cautious in your behavior, courteous to your Brethren, and faithful to your Lodge?"

"You promise to respect genuine Brethren, and to discountenance impostors, and all dissenters from the original plan of Masonry?"

"You promise to pay homage to the Grand Master for the time being, and to his officers when duly installed; and strictly to conform to every edict of the Grand Lodge, that is not subversive of the principles and groundwork of Masonry?"

"You promise a regular attendance on the committees and communications of the Grand Lodge, on receiving proper notice, and to pay attention to all the duties of Masonry on convenient occasions?"

"You agree to hold in veneration the original rulers and patrons of Freemasonry, and to their regular successors, supreme and subordinate, according to their stations?"

"You agree to promote the general good of society, to cultivate the social virtues, and to propagate the knowledge of the mystic art?"

"You agree that no visitor shall be received into your Lodge without due examination and satisfactory evidence of their having been initiated in a regular Lodge?"

"You admit that no person can be regularly made a Mason in, or admitted a member of, any regular Lodge without previous notice and due inquiry into his character?"

"You admit that no new Lodge shall be formed without permission from the Grand Lodge, and that no countenance be given to any irregular Lodge, or to any person clandestinely initiated therein, being contrary to the Ancient Charges of Freemasonry?"

"You admit that it is not in the power of any man or body of men to make innovations in the body of Masonry?"

These are the regulations of Free and Accepted Masons. Do you submit to these charges, and promise to support these regulations as Worshipful Masters have done in all ages before you?

(The Master will answer in an audible voice:) I do.

I.O. – Brother_____, in consequence of your cheerful assent to the charges and regulations of the Ancient Fraternity, you are now to be installed Master of this Lodge, in full confidence of your care, skill, and capacity to govern the same.

Brother Installing Marshal, you will conduct the Worshipful Master to the foot of the dais.

I.O. - My Brother, with pleasure I now cause you to be invested with the jewel of your office -

THE SQUARE - (pause) As the square is employed by the operative Mason to fit and adjust the stones of a building, that all its parts may properly agree, so you as Worshipful Master of this Lodge, are admonished by the symbolic meaning of the square to preserve that moral deportment among the members of your Lodge which should always characterize good Masons.

I.O. - You will now receive the Charter and the various books and implements used in your Lodge.

(The I.M. will hand these, as they are referred to, to the Worshipful Master, who will retain them during the explanation to each by the I.O., and then return each of them to the I.M.)

THE HOLY WRITINGS - (pause) The Holy Writings, that Great Light in Masonry, will guide you to all truth; it will direct your paths to the temple of happiness, and point out to you the whole duty of man.

THE SQUARE - (pause) The Square teaches us to regulate our every action and to let our conduct be governed by the principles of Morality and Virtue.

THE COMPASSES - (pause) The Compasses teach us to limit our desires in every station, and never to suffer our passions or our prejudices to become the masters of our judgment.

THE CHARTER - (pause) The Charter which you have now received, is the authority by which this Lodge is held. As its lawful custodian, you are carefully to preserve it and duly transmit it to your successor in office.

THE CODE OF THE GRAND LODGE OF UTAH - (pause) This Code you are to search at all times. Cause it to be read in your Lodge, that none may pretend ignorance of the excellent precepts it enjoins.

THE BY-LAWS - (pause) This book contains the By-laws of your Lodge, which you are to see carefully and punctually executed.

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will conduct the Worshipful Master to a seat in the East on my right.
Installing Marshal, you will present the Senior Warden- elect.

SENIOR WARDEN

I.M. - Worshipful Sir (or appropriate title) I now present for Installation, Brother _____, who has been elected (or appointed) Senior Warden of this Lodge.

I.O. - Brother _____, you have been elected (or appointed) Senior Warden of this Lodge, and will be invested with the jewel of your office. (pause) The Level demonstrates that we are descended from the same stock, partake of the same nature, and share in the same hope; and though distinctions among men are necessary to perform the work of the world, yet no eminence of station should make us forget that we are Brethren; for he who is placed on the lowest spoke of fortune's wheel may be entitled to our regard, because a time will come, and the wisest knows not how soon, when all distinction but that of goodness shall cease, and death, the grand leveler of human greatness, reduce us to the same state.

Your regular and punctual attendance is essentially necessary. In the absence of the Worshipful Master you are to govern this Lodge. In his presence you are to assist him in the government of it. Hence the necessity of preparing yourself for the important duties that may devolve upon you. LOOK WELL TO THE WEST.

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will present the Junior Warden-elect.

JUNIOR WARDEN

I.M. - Worshipful Sir (or appropriate title). I now present for Installation, Brother _____, who has been elected (or appointed) Junior Warden of this Lodge.

I.O. - Brother _____, you are elected (or appointed) Junior Warden of this Lodge, and will be invested with the jewel of your office. (pause) The Plumb admonishes us to walk uprightly in our several stations; to hold the scales of justice in equal poise; to observe the just medium between intemperance and pleasure; and to make our passions and prejudices coincide with our duty. To you is committed the superintendence of the craft during the hours of refreshment. It is, therefore, indispensably necessary that you should not only be temperate and discreet in the indulgence of your own inclinations, but carefully observe that none of the craft be suffered to convert the purposes of refreshment into intemperance and excess.

Your regular and punctual attendance is particularly requested, and we have no doubt that you will ever be watchful, whether at labor or refreshment, that the High Twelve of observation does not find you with your work, and that of the craft you superintend unperformed. LOOK WELL TO THE SOUTH.

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will present the Treasurer- elect.

TREASURER

I.M. - Worshipful Sir (or appropriate title). I now present for Installation, Brother_____, who has been elected (or appointed) Treasurer of this Lodge.

Your good inclination to Freemasonry and your Lodge will induce you to discharge the duties of your office with fidelity.

I.O. – Brother_____, (or Brothers_____), you have been elected (or appointed) Trustee (or Trustees) of this Lodge. The Trustees wear no jewel to indicate their office because their labors are performed, for the most part, outside the Lodge room. You, with your associates, are charged with the duty of holding, taking title to and investing all the funds of the Lodge. Your election (or appointment) to this responsible office is proof of the trust reposed in you, and of the esteem in which you are held by your Brethren.

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will present the Chaplain.

CHAPLAIN

I.M. - Worshipful Sir (or appropriate title). I now present for Installation, Brother_____, who has been appointed Chaplain of this Lodge.

I.O. – Brother_____, you have been appointed Chaplain of this Lodge and will be invested with the jewel of your office. (pause) The Book of Holy Writings, which is the textbook of the Chaplain's calling, is the Great Light in Freemasonry, and forever sheds its benign rays upon every lawful assemblage of Free and Accepted Masons. Teach us from its life-giving precepts; invoke upon our labors the blessing of that Divine Being whose infinite goodness it so fully reveals and unfolds to us; and guide us by its lessons of wisdom and truth.

Brother Junior Deacon, it will be your duty to carry messages from the Senior Warden in the West, to the Junior Warden in the South, and elsewhere about the Lodge as directed; to attend all alarms at the door, and to see that the Lodge is tyled.

I.O. – Brother____, and Brother____, you are appointed Senior and Junior Stewards respectively of this Lodge, and will be invested with the jewel of your office. (pause) You are to assist the Deacons and other officers in performing their duties, and when the Lodge is at refreshment, it will be your province to extend to visiting Brethren such attentions as circumstances may suggest. Your regular and early attendance at our meetings will afford the best proof of your zeal and attachment to the Lodge.

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will present the Marshal.

MARSHAL

I.M. - Worshipful Sir (or appropriate title) I now present for Installation, Brother____, who has been appointed Marshal of this Lodge.

I.O. - Brother_____, you are appointed Organist of this Lodge, and will be invested with the jewel of your office. (pause) Under the direction of the Worshipful Master you will conduct the musical services of the Lodge. As harmony is the strength and support of all institutions, so may the harmony over which you shall preside strengthen and support every gentle and ennobling emotion of the soul.

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will present the Tyler.

I.M. - Worshipful Sir (or appropriate title) . I now present for Installation, Brother____, who has been appointed Tyler of this Lodge.

I.O. - Brother _____, you have been appointed Tyler of this Lodge and will be invested with the jewel and implement of your office. (pause) As the sword is placed in the hand of the Tyler to enable him to guard against the approach of cowans and eavesdroppers, and to see that none pass or repass except such as are duly qualified and have permission, so it should admonish us to set a guard over our thoughts, a watch over our lips, and to post a sentinel over our actions, thereby preventing the approach of every unworthy act, thought, or deed, and preserving consciences void of offense toward God and toward man.

CHARGE TO THE WORSHIPFUL MASTER

I.O. - Worship Master (who rises), the Grand Lodge having committed to your care the superintendence and government of the Brethren who compose this Lodge, you cannot be insensible of the obligations which devolve upon you as their head, nor of your responsibility for the faithful discharge of the important duties annexed to your election. The honor, reputation, and usefulness of your Lodge will materially depend upon the skill and diligence with which you manage its concerns, while the happiness of its members will be generally promoted in proportion to the zeal and ability with which you propagate the genuine principles of our institution.

For a pattern for imitation, consider the great luminary of nature, which, rising in the East, regularly diffuses light and luster to all within the circle. In like manner it is your province to spread and communicate light and instruction to the Brethren of your Lodge. Forcibly impress upon them the dignity and high importance of Masonry and seriously admonish them never to disgrace it. Charge them to practice out of the Lodge those duties which they have been taught in it, and by amiable, discreet, and virtuous conduct to convince mankind of the goodness of the institution, so that when a man is said to be a member of it the world may know that he is one to whom the burdened heart may pour out its sorrow; to whom distress may prefer its suit; whose hand is guided by justice, and whose heart is expanded by benevolence. In short, by a diligent observance of the By-laws of your Lodge, the constitutions of Masonry, and above all the Holy Scriptures which are given as a rule and guide to our faith, you will be enabled to acquit yourself with honor and reputation.

CHARGE TO SENIOR AND JUNIOR WARDENS

I.O. - Brothers Senior and Junior Wardens (who rise). Brethren you are too well acquainted with the principles of Masonry to warrant any distrust that you will be found wanting in the discharge of your respective duties. Suffice it to say that what you have found praiseworthy in others, you should carefully imitate, and what in them may have appeared defective, you should in yourselves amend.

You should be examples of good order and regularity, for it is only by a due regard to the laws in your own conduct that you can expect obedience to them from others. You are diligently to assist the Worshipful Master in the discharge of his trust, diffusing light and imparting knowledge to all whom he shall place under your care. In the absence of the Worshipful Master, you will succeed to higher duties, your acquirements must therefore be such that the craft may never suffer for want of proper instruction. From the spirit which you have hitherto evinced, I entertain no doubt that your future conduct will be such as to merit the applause of your Brethren and the testimony of a good conscience.

CHARGE TO MEMBERS

I.O. - The Brethren will rise * * * Brethren of _____ Lodge No. _____. Such is the nature of our Constitution, that as some must of necessity rule and teach, so others must, of course, learn to submit and obey. Humility in both is an essential duty. The officers who are elected and appointed to govern your Lodge are sufficiently conversant with the rules of propriety and the laws of the institution, to avoid exceeding the powers with which they are entrusted, and you are of too generous disposition to envy their preferment. I, therefore, trust that you will have but one aim - to please each other and unite in the grand design of being happy and communicating happiness.

Finally, my Brethren, as this association has been formed and perfected in such unanimity and concord, in which we greatly rejoice, so may it long continue. May you long enjoy every satisfaction and delight which disinterested friendship can afford. May kindness and brotherly affection distinguish your conduct as men and Masons. Within your peaceful walls may your children's children celebrate with joy and gratitude the annual recurrence of this auspicious solemnity. And may the tenets of our profession be transmitted through your Lodge, pure and unimpaired, from generation to generation.

From this happy prospect I rest assured of your steady perseverance, and conclude with wishing you all, my Brethren, joy of your Master, Wardens and other officers, and of your constitutional union as Brethren.

The I.O. removes his hat.

I.O. - Worshipful Master (who rises). I place in your hands this Gavel, the emblem of power. In the hands of the Worshipful Master it may be made an instrument of great good, or of greater evil. With it the Master governs his Lodge; and the welfare and prosperity of your Lodge, in a great measure, depends upon its judicious use. In your hands I am confident it will be wielded for the best interests of your Brethren. I now seat you in the oriental chair, and cover you with that distinction which, in this Lodge, it is alone your privilege to wear. Worshipful Master, behold your Brethren. Brethren, behold your Worshipful Master, and salute him with the public Grand Honors of Three times Three.

I.O. - Installing Marshal, you will now make the proclamation.

(For a joint visitation, chairs for all the Masters of the Lodges being visited should be placed on the left of the Grand Master.) Seating of other Grand Lodge Officers shall be according to chart.
3. Each Lodge Officer, other than the Master, will welcome the appropriate Grand Lodge Officer to his place or station, then take a seat on the side lines.
4. When labor is resumed, the Worshipful Master will appoint two Past Masters (usually the oldest) to inform the Grand Master that the Lodge(s) is (are) ready to receive him. (If two or more Lodges are being visited, one Past Master from each Lodge should be appointed to the committee.) When the Committee retires, the two Stewards carrying rods, should station themselves inside the door and form an arch with their rods when the Grand Marshal gives the alarm.
5. The Grand Marshal shall announce the Grand Master as follows: "The Most Worshipful Grand Master of Free and Accepted Masons in Utah." The Worshipful Master raps up the Lodge and removes his hat. The Grand Master shall be covered when he enters the Lodge.

6. The members of the committee, having preceded the Grand Lodge Officers into the Lodge Room, should be at the front of the line, North of the Altar. When the Grand Lodge Officers are all in line and have given the Due Guard and Sign, one member of the Committee advances one pace and introduces the Grand Master.

"Worshipful Master(s), I have the pleasure of introducing to you and through you to the Wardens and Brethren of _____Lodge(s), No(s)____, Brother_____, the Most Worshipful Grand Master of Free and Accepted Masons in Utah."

The Worshipful Master then says: "The Brethren will join me in giving the Private Grand Honors." The Worshipful Master then takes position standing on the left of the Grand Master until he seats the Lodge.

7. When the Grand Master is ready to retire, his Officers join him around the Altar. RECEPTION OF VISITORS GENERAL INFORMATION

Refer to Chapter IX of the Grand Lodge Code for specific information on visitors to a Lodge. In general a visitor must be vouched for by a member who has previously sat in the Lodge to be visited or must be examined by a committee as specified in Sections 3-9-1 and 3-9-2. If the visitor must be examined the Master will assign a committee of at least 2 members who will retire and conduct the examination. After the Committee is satisfied that the Brother is qualified to visit the Lodge. The committee will be readmitted, and after giving the sign of the Degree at the altar the chairman will say;

Worshipful Master, we your committee, have examined Bro. A.B., of _____ Lodge No. _____ located at _____ and find him to be a (MM, EA, or FC) in good standing and believe him worthy to sit among us.

WM - Bro. Senior Deacon, retire with the committee and introduce the visiting Brother.

The Senior Deacon and chairman of the committee should give the sign and retire; the other members of the committee should be seated. The chairman of the committee should present the visitor to the Senior Deacon, they will immediately return to the lodge and after all three have given the sign at the altar, the Senior Deacon addresses the Worshipful Master —

SD - Worshipful Master, I have the pleasure of introducing to you, and through you to the Wardens and Brethren of _____ Lodge No. _____. Bro A.B., a (MM, FC, EA) of Lodge No. _____ located at _____.

The Worshipful Master should rise and call up the lodge.

WM - Bro. B., on behalf of _____ Lodge No. _____ I extend you a cordial and fraternal welcome, and hope you will enjoy your visit with us this evening and that it will be convenient for you to meet with us often. (Or some other suitable language.) Bro. Senior Deacon, conduct Bro. B. to a seat among the brethren. #

Should the visiting brother be a present or Past Master, the Worshipful Master would use the title Worshipful Brother, and offer him a seat in the East.

RECEPTION OF GRAND OFFICERS AND DISTINGUISHED VISITORS

The reception of Grand Officers and distinguished visitors with the honor due to their rank is an ancient custom of the Fraternity which should not be omitted.

When the Grand Master is visiting the Lodge informally, immediately after the opening of the Lodge (or later if he is not present immediately following the opening), the Master will order the Senior Deacon to present him West of the Altar. The Senior Warden will say,

“Worshipful Master, I have the pleasure of introducing to you and through you to the Wardens and Brethren of _____ Lodge No. _____, Brother _____, The Most Worshipful Grand Master, Free and Accepted Masons in Utah.”

The Worshipful Master will call up the Lodge, and invite the Brethren to join him in giving the Grand Honors, after which the Master will welcome him to the Lodge, and invite him to a seat in the East. The Grand Master of Utah shall always be presented separately.

The same procedure shall be followed for visiting Grand Masters of other Jurisdictions and Past Grand Masters of this and other Jurisdictions. All Grand Masters should be offered seats in the East and escorted to the East by the Senior Deacon. The same courtesy may be extended to past Grand Masters. Other Grand Officers of this or some other Grand Jurisdiction should be presented in the same manner – invited and escorted to the East, or to their seats as the Master may desire. (Grand Honors are not given to such Grand Officers.) Past Grand Masters and other Grand Officers are presented in separate groups.

Grand Officers, who are members of the Lodge, should be presented and escorted on occasion of their first visit to their home Lodge after Communication of the Grand Lodge. Thereafter they may or may not be presented as may be desired.

The Worshipful Master another Lodge should be presented in the same manner – invited to a seat in the East and escorted there if he chooses to accept. (Grand Honors are not given in this instance.)

It should be noted that Grand Honors are to be given to a Grand Master, Past Grand Master, to a Master of a Lodge on the occasion of his installation, and to Grand Representatives of other Grand Jurisdictions.

CEREMONY OF THE GRAND LODGE, FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS OF UTAH, FOR THE PRESENTATION OF THE FIFTY YEAR PIN

TO ALL MEMBERS OF LODGES IN THIS JURISDICTION WHO HAVE BEEN MASTER MASONS FIFTY YEARS OR MORE

This presentation may be made in any session of the Grand Lodge, at any official visitation by the Grand Master, at any regular meeting of a constituent Lodge by the Master of a Lodge, or in any other manner when circumstances require.

Remarks appropriate to the occasion may be made by the presiding officer. A copy of ceremony signed by the presiding officer and Secretary of the Lodge together with the 50 year pin shall be presented to recipient at the close of the ceremony.

The booklet and pin will be furnished by the Grand Secretary on application stating the name and record of the recipient.

Brother Senior Deacon, Present Brother _____ to the East. Throughout the pages of that revered volume which is the Great Light of Masonry, length of life is held up as a reward to the righteous. The Psalmist sings: "The days of our years are three score years and ten." This has come to be regarded as the standard of the usual allotment of time of our earthly existence. If, "by reason of strength they be four score years," we consider that these additional years are the heritage of those that fear the name of the Lord.

To be eligible to receive the "Fifty Year" badge of service in Masonry, the recipient must have passed the traditional boundary line, and have entered upon the years which are the heritage of the faithful.

There are three steps which are symbolic of the three principal stages of human life, namely: Youth, Manhood, and Old Age. In Youth we may industriously occupy our minds in the attainment of useful knowledge; in Manhood we apply that knowledge to the discharge of our respective duties to God, our neighbor and ourselves; but it is only in Old Age, that we may enjoy the happy reflections consequent upon a life well spent.

Brother _____, the records show that you have been a Master Mason in good standing for a period of fifty years. For half a century, you have given of yourself, of your substance, and of your devotion to Masonry. You can look back upon a lifetime of service in the Fraternity; you have assisted the widow and the orphan; you have promulgated the virtues of the brotherhood; you have protected its good name. Your fidelity entitles you to the admiration and to the esteem of your Brethren, in your own Lodge and in the Grand Jurisdiction of Utah.

This emblem of service is the evidence of that appreciation which we now express to you. It sets you apart as an example of fidelity, that "holiest of all good things which abide in a human breast."

But your period of service is not yet ended. May you continue, for many more years, to enjoy the companionship of your Brethren, and to inspire them to the faithful performance of the duties to which their Masonic vows commit them.

As you wear this badge, wear it with pride which comes from the performance of duty, the pride which is the reward of faithful service.

May you long enjoy the heritage of those that fear the name of the Lord.

Brother Senior Deacon, conduct the Brother to his seat.
