This action shall not be taken with respect to anyone who is a Past Grand Master of the Order. A member may be excused for cause by action of DeMolay International.

Section 10. Charges, Hearing and Removal.

(a) Charges may be filed by a Class 1 or Class 2 Member against any Class 1, 2, 3, or 4 Member of DeMolay International for conduct unbecoming his position and which is not in the best interest of the corporation.

(b) Charges shall be filed in writing by letter sent to the Grand Secretary at the offices of DeMolay International, and shall set forth the name of the Member bringing the charges, his address, the name of the Member against whom the charges are brought, his last known address, and the specific facts giving rise to the alleged unbecoming conduct. The charges shall be dated and signed by the Member preferring the same.

(c) Upon receipt of the charges, the Grand Secretary shall promptly notify the Grand Master and Member charged of the same. Service of the charges upon the Member charged shall be by first class mail, postage prepaid, and by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the last address of the Member known to DeMolay International. Service shall be deemed effective three (3) days following the mailing thereof to the Member and his counsel, if any. The Member charged shall be informed of his right to respond to the charges in writing to the Grand Master within thirty (30) days of filing and may assert the same to be frivolous or personal in nature and ask they be dismissed. Frivolous charges or charges for the purpose of resolving individual grievances shall not be allowed, and any charges which the Grand Master determines to be frivolous or personal in nature shall be dismissed by the Grand Master. Such determination shall be made in writing, shall become part of the record of the case, and shall be reported to the Board of Directors at its next scheduled meeting. In the event the charging Member wishes to appeal the decision of the Grand Master, he shall do so before the Board of Directors, and any appeal shall be only upon the information contained within the charges and the decision of the Grand Master. If the Board of Directors determines that the charges should be considered by trial commission, the decision of the Grand Master shall be reversed, and a trial commission convened. If the Board of Directors upholds the decision of the Grand Master, such a determination shall be final, and no further appeals shall be permitted. Unless the Grand Master determines the charges to be frivolous or personal in nature as set forth above, or if charges dismissed by the Grand Master are reinstated by the Board of Directors following appeal, the Grand Master shall appoint a trial commission to hear the same.

(d) The trial commission shall consist of five Class 1 Members of DeMolay International, none of whom shall be the Member bringing the charges, the Member against whom charges are brought, a witness to the alleged unbecoming conduct, or any other Member with a personal interest in the results of the proceedings. The Grand Master shall select a chairman from among the five members. If requested by the chairman, the Grand Master may appoint a Class 1 Member who is an attorney to act as counsel to the trial commission. The counsel shall not be entitled to a vote as a member of the commission. The Grand Master may also appoint a Prosecuting Member to advance the case of the charging Member if, in the judgment of the Grand Master, such appointment is necessary for the proper prosecution of the case.

(e) The Grand Secretary shall send a written copy of the charges as filed to the Member bringing the charges, the Member against whom the charges are made and each member of the trial commission and the trial commission's counsel, if any. In addition to mailing the charges, the Grand Secretary or his designate shall attempt to make telephonic contact with the Member to insure he is aware of the pending charges. Failure to make contact after a good faith effort shall not affect the outcome of the matter.

(f) If the Member against whom charges are filed wishes to contest the allegations, he shall notify the Chairman of the trial commission within thirty (30) days of the mailing thereof. Such notice shall be in writing, signed by the Member, and shall constitute a denial of the charges. In the event the Member charged does not give notice within this time period, he shall be deemed to have elected to not contest the charges, and shall be removed from membership at the expiration of the notice period.

(g) Upon receipt of notice denying the charges, the Chairman of the trial commission shall schedule a pre-hearing conference within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the same, such conference to be held in a location determined by the Chairman, or telephonically if permitted by the Chairman for the convenience of the parties. At this conference, a discovery schedule shall be established, rules related to the conduct of the hearing shall be determined, the location of the hearing shall be set, and a trial date not more than ninety (90) days from the date of the conference shall be calendared by the Chairman, unless all parties agree to a date beyond this ninety day period.

(h) If the Member against whom charges are brought fails to comply with discovery procedures established by the Chairman, this failure and the impact of evidence not provided may be considered by the trial commission in the final determination of the case.

(i) Venue for trial commission proceedings shall be set in Kansas City, Missouri; provided the Chairman may set a different venue if necessary to allow the participation of witnesses involved in the case.

(j) The Chairman shall act as presiding officer, may grant continuances or a change of venue upon proper motion if appropriate, and shall determine all questions of practice, procedure and admissibility of evidence or testimony, using general principles of due process. The Chairman shall rule on all matters of evidence following generally the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The rules related to admissibility of evidence shall be modified to permit the admission of statements signed under oath or penalty of perjury; provided such statements are provided to the Member charged and/or the Trial Commission at least thirty (30) days prior to the hearing. Uncorroborated hearsay shall not be admissible. No verbatim transcript of the hearing shall be required.

(k) Only Class 1 and Class 2 Members, the Member against whom charges have been preferred, counsel and witnesses may attend the hearing. The Member bringing the charges and the Member against whom charges have been brought may be represented by counsel who may attend the hearing.

(l) Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the trial commission shall meet in closed session without the parties or their counsel present and determine whether the charges do not amount to conduct unbecoming a Member and are not in the best interests of the corporation, and dismiss the same, or the Member against whom charges have been brought shall be subject to sanction or removal. Sanctions may include, without limitation, suspension for a period of months or years, conditions of future conduct or successful completion of programs of rehabilitation. In the alternative, the trial commission may remove the Member from the Order if it finds that the conduct of the Member was unbecoming his position and not in the best interests of the corporation, and that no lesser sanction is appropriate. The decision to remove a Member shall be based upon a preponderance of the evidence presented to the trial commission.

(m) A majority vote of the trial commission shall determine the outcome of these proceedings.

(n) In the event sanctions or removal is ordered by the trial commission, that decision shall be entered in the record, and shall be effective immediately at the conclusion of the decision of the trial commission. The findings and conclusions of the trial commission and the result of the trial shall be reported to the Grand Secretary and Grand Master in writing, for inclusion in their reports to DeMolay International

(o) Nothing herein shall prevent the trial commission, acting through its Chairman, and the Member against whom charges have been preferred from agreeing to a disposition which has been approved by a majority of the trial commission and the Member charged.

(p) If the parties, by agreement, wish to submit the matter to mediation, they may do so. A mediator shall be selected by agreement of the parties and, if no agreement can be reached, by the Chairman of the trial commission. The mediator shall be an attorney trained and experienced in mediation in matters involving disputes within non-profit organizations.

(q) Following the decision of the trial commission, the Member subject to sanction or removal may appeal the decision of the trial commission to the Board of Directors at its next regularly scheduled meeting. Any such appeal shall be based upon the findings, conclusions and results of the trial as submitted by the trial commission and any other record kept related to such proceedings. The notice of appeal must be made in writing to the Grand Secretary not more than thirty (30) days from the decision; however, any such appeal shall not suspend the enforcement of the decision of the trial commission. Only the information contained within the appeal itself, the written report of the trial commission, any memorandum or summary presented by the Member charged and the Member bringing charges and the decision may be considered by the Board, and no new evidence shall be permitted. Only Class 1 and Class 2 members, the Member against whom charges were preferred and his counsel may attend the appeal proceeding before the Board. Following presentation of the appeal, the Board of Directors shall meet in closed session without other Members not directly involved in the appeal before the Board, the parties or their counsel, to consider the appeal and the decision of the trial commission, and the decision of the Board of Directors shall be conclusive. Absent reversal of the decision of the trial commission, the decision shall be upheld, and the appeal denied. If the Board of Directors reverses the decision of the trial commission, it may order that the Grand Master appoint a new trial commission composed of Members who did not hear the first case to hear the matter again, or impose such sanctions, including removal of the Member, as are permitted to be imposed by a trial commission. There shall be no further appeal of the decision of the Board of Directors following appeal of the decision of the trial commission; provided that, if a new trial commission is appointed by action of the Board of Directors, the decision of that trial commission may be reviewed by the Board of Directors as an original proceeding as permitted herein.

(r) Participation in the Trial Commission shall be mandatory, and may only be excused for good cause shown, and not for matters of convenience or discomfort. Failure to serve without good cause shall be considered as conduct unbecoming a Member and to not be in the best interests of the corporation, and may form the basis of charges under this Section.

(s) Costs and expenses of the Trial Commission, its counsel, and the prosecuting Member or Members shall be borne by DeMolay International. The Chairman may, at DeMolay expense, retain the services of a private investigator or police agency to assist in the investigation and gathering of evidence for eventual presentation to the Trial Commission. If, upon the conclusion of the hearing, the trial commission has determined that the charges are unfounded, and has dismissed the same, the Commission shall order that the reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the Member charged in preparation of his defense and appearance before the Commission be reimbursed by DeMolay International. (1998) (2009)

Section 11. Resignation.

(a) A Class 1, 2, 3 or 4 member may resign from DeMolay International by letter to the Grand Secretary. The resignation is effective upon receipt by the Grand Secretary. The Grand Secretary shall notify the Grand Master and record the resignation.

(b) Any Class 1 or 3 member of DeMolay International delinquent in his fees shall be deemed to have resigned his membership in DeMolay International and shall be dropped from the rolls unless payment has been waived by the Grand Master. (2006)

(c) A Chapter suspended may hold meetings and conduct activities for the purpose of raising funds, but shall not function otherwise as a Chapter. If the suspension is not lifted within ninety days by filing the reports or payment of the sums in default, the Charter is forfeited.

(d) Any Chapter falling below the minimum of fifteen members on December 31 of any year will be placed on probation for twelve months during which it must initiate and report enough new members to raise its total membership to fifteen. Failure to do so revokes the Charter or Letters Temporary of the Chapter at the discretion of the Executive Officer.

(e) Any Chapter failing to initiate at least once per Master Councilor's term will be placed on probation for twelve months during which it must initiate on at least three occasions. Failure to do so revokes the Charter or Letters Temporary of the Chapter at the discretion of the Executive Officer.

(d) Any Mason in good standing, Senior DeMolay, or the father, mother, stepfather, stepmother or legal guardian of a DeMolay and any other individual permitted by the Executive Officer may serve as an Advisor.

(e) To be eligible to serve as Chairman, an Advisor must be a Mason in good standing.

(f) Every Advisor must annually by November 30th of each year sign and electronically file with the Grand Secretary a completed Certificate of Change, or Certificate of No Change. 314.2 Appointment. All Advisors are appointed by the Executive Officer. He may only appoint a person to serve as an Advisor after confirming that the person has successfully completed the DeMolay advisor training program and has completed and filed a DeMolay advisor application. (2001) (2011) (2016)

314.3 Vows. Each member of an Advisory Council shall take a vow of allegiance to DeMolay International and the Executive Officer, and be duly installed.

314.4 Term. The term of Advisory Council members is one year.

314.5 Vacancies. Vacancies are filled by the Executive Officer.

314.6 Removal. The Executive Officer may remove any Advisory Council member who does not or will not perform his duties in accordance with the bylaws, these rules and regulations, or as directed by the Executive Officer.

(e) At least two registered DeMolay Advisors must be present at all Chapter events. (2003) (2005) (2018)

314.8 Chairman. The Chairman of the Advisory Council presides at its meetings, and performs the other duties required of him by his office or the Advisory Council.

314.9 Chapter Advisor. The Chapter Advisor:

(a) Is the liaison between the Advisory Council and Chapter members.

314.12 Disciplinary Authority.

(a) With the approval of the Executive Officer, the Advisory Council may drop from membership in the Order a member over which it has disciplinary authority who is guilty of violating DeMolay law, who is not of good morals, or whose conduct is unworthy of a member of the Order of DeMolay.

(b) An Advisory Council has disciplinary authority over the members of its Chapter wherever residing, and all members of the Order of DeMolay, belonging to any Chapter, but who reside nearer to its place of meeting than to that of the Chapter in which the member holds membership. In places where more than one Chapter exists, the Chapters have concurrent penal authority over DeMolays residing in the area who are not members of any of them. When a member has been suspended for cause, his Chapter has exclusive penal authority over him. A change of residence after charges have been filed does not divest the Chapter of the power to act.

(c) If a DeMolay pleads guilty or Nolo Contendere, or is found guilty of a felony, he may be expelled from the Order. The Advisory Council shall obtain a certified copy of the court's order and forward it to the Executive Officer. The Executive Officer shall notify the DeMolay by certified mail that he has thirty days from the receipt or forty-five days from mailing, whichever is later, to show cause to the Executive Officer why he should not be expelled from the Order. If good cause is not shown, the Executive Officer shall forward to the Grand Secretary copies of all documents pertaining to the expulsion. The Grand Secretary shall then strike the DeMolay's name from the rolls and notify the Advisory Council, Executive Officer and the former DeMolay.

(d) Except as provided for felonies, the power to drop from membership may be exercised only under this subsection, after notice to the Executive Officer. Written charges and notice of hearing must be served on the member at least thirty days before the hearing. The hearing must be held by the Advisory Council in closed session. The member may at his choice be present, represented or accompanied by any adult relative or Mason. At the hearing, the member may answer the charges either orally or in writing. The decision of the Advisory Council must be reduced to writing, signed by a majority of the Advisory Council present and voting, and a copy of all proceedings certified and forwarded to the Executive Officer for his rejection or approval. The Executive Officer, shall in writing, notify the young man, the Advisory Council and Grand Secretary of his decision. The action of the Advisory Council and the Executive Officer are subject to appeal to DeMolay International, whose decision is final. If the Executive Officer approves a decision to drop from membership, the Grand Secretary shall strike the DeMolay's name from the rolls if no appeal has been filed within thirty days of the Executive Officer's written decision or when the appeal is dismissed or the decision is affirmed. (2012)

(e) The Advisory Council may suspend a DeMolay for un-DeMolay conduct for a definite or indefinite term. A report of the circumstances of the suspension must be promptly made in writing to the Executive Officer for his approval or disapproval. A suspension under this subsection may not exceed sixty days unless the procedures that apply to dropping from membership are followed.

(f) With the approval of the Executive Officer, an Advisory Council may take such other disciplinary action as is necessary for the best interest of the Order. Such actions may include temporarily prohibiting a member from participating in or being present at activities of the Order or requiring a member to perform specific service acts. A record of any such disciplinary actions must be entered in the minutes of the Advisory Council meeting where approved and shall be reported in writing to the Executive Officer.

(g) The Executive Officer may substitute himself for an Advisory Council in any proceeding under this Section. He shall report all his actions under this Section in writing to the Grand Master. (1998)

The applicant must be sponsored by a Mason. Membership shall be considered on the basis of character and moral qualifications as prescribed in The Sacred Landmarks of the Order of DeMolay. (1999)

315.3 Application Received. Every application for membership or for affiliation must be received at a meeting of the Chapter.

315.4 Visitation Committees. Unless otherwise directed by the Executive Officer, all applications for membership or for affiliation when received, shall be referred by the Master Councilor to a visitation committee which shall inquire thoroughly into the character and fitness of the applicant and report in writing, by the next stated meeting, when the application for membership will be voted on. The visitation committee must report favorably or unfavorably, by a majority of its members. If the committee fails to report at the proper time, the Master Councilor may continue the committee or appoint a new committee. When desirable, an advisor may make the visitation and report instead of the committee.

315.5 Election for Membership. Election for membership or for affiliation must be only at a meeting of the Chapter and unless otherwise directed by the Executive Officer, after a visitation committee has reported. A secret ballot shall be conducted in the following manner:

(a) The Master Councilor reads the name of the applicant and the facts set out in his application. If applicable, he states whether the report of the committee is favorable or unfavorable and may give any information reported by the committee. If applicable, an unfavorable report by a committee of visitation or any members thereof, or an objection to an application by any member of the Chapter before balloting on the application, shall be referred to the Chapter Advisor, or in his absence to a member of the Advisory Council. The Advisory Council shall decide if the unfavorable report or objection itself constitutes a rejection.

(b) A collective ballot may be taken if there is more than one applicant to be balloted on. If no more than one black cube appears, the applicants are elected. If two or more black cubes appear, there must be an individual ballot on each application.

(c) When there is an individual ballot, if no more than one black cube appears, the applicant is elected. If two black cubes appear, the ballot shall not be declared, but shall lie over until the next meeting when another ballot shall be taken. If three or more black cubes appear, the applicant is rejected.

(d) When a ballot lies over, an applicant is rejected if three or more black cubes appear on this second ballot, otherwise the applicant is elected.

315.6 Rejected, May Apply Again.

(a) When an applicant for membership has been rejected, he cannot again apply to any Chapter for three months.

(b) When an applicant for affiliation has been rejected, he may again apply after one month, and the application must then lie over for two weeks before ballot.

(c) An applicant rejected upon application must, when applying to another Chapter, disclose his former rejection.

315.7 Objection Filed. After an applicant has been elected and before the beginning of the conferral of the Initiatory Degree, a written objection signed by three members of the Chapter may be filed with the Chapter Scribe. The objection must be considered by the Chapter and voted upon. If sustained by one-third of the members present the degrees cannot be conferred, and the applicant is rejected. After an applicant has received any degree, objections can only be sustained by regular trial before the Advisory Council.

315.8 Initiation Fees and Dues. No applicant may be initiated until he has paid the initiation fee.

315.9 Receiving Degrees. An applicant elected for membership must present himself at the proper time and place to receive the degrees within three months of election. If he does not, or does not show good cause for his delay, he forfeits election for membership and must apply again.

315.10 Enrollment.

(a) Every applicant who receives the Initiatory Degree in any Chapter becomes a member of the Chapter which elected him, and his name is entered upon its roll.

(b) The Grand Secretary shall make available a handbook to the members when the Initiatory Degree is reported.

(c) The Grand Secretary shall issue a patent when both the Initiatory and DeMolay Degrees have been reported. (2017)

(d) An applicant who does not present himself to receive the DeMolay Degree within twelve months is placed in an inactive category and shall be so reported by the Grand Secretary. Members in this category are not eligible to receive a Senior DeMolay certificate or card.

315.11 Application for Affiliation.

(a) A member applying for affiliation must present in addition to his application, a transfer certificate, or a certificate from his Executive Officer. His application for affiliation must be on a regular application blank marked "Affiliation", and be accompanied by the affiliation fee.

(b) Applications for affiliation must be acted upon in the same manner as applications for membership.

(c) If a DeMolay is elected for membership in the new Chapter, the Scribe of the Chapter shall immediately notify the DeMolay's former Chapter and the DeMolay is a member of the new Chapter from the date of election.

(d) A DeMolay's standing is not impaired by rejection of his application. He remains a member of his former Chapter until that Chapter receives notice of his election by another Chapter and deletes his name from its rolls effective the date of his affiliation election.

315.12 Dual Membership.

(a) Dual membership in Chapters is permissible with the approval of each Executive Officer concerned. All requirements for membership by affiliation must be met. If a DeMolay is elected for membership in the Chapter applied to, the Scribe of the Chapter shall immediately notify the DeMolay's other Chapter, and the brother shall be a member of both Chapters from the date of his affiliation election.

(b) A member may not hold an elected office in more than one Chapter at the same time. (2014)

315.13 Obligation Card Required. Unless otherwise directed by the Executive Officer, a member must, by standing examination in an open Chapter meeting, demonstrate that he has committed to memory the obligations and examination queries of both degrees in order to vote or hold office. When a member has demonstrated his proficiency, he will be issued an obligation card.

315.14 Member At Large.

(a) When a Chapter surrenders its Letters Temporary or Charter, or the Letters Temporary or Charter are suspended or forfeited, each member becomes a member-at-large of the jurisdiction. (2015)

(c) A member who has moved from the vicinity of his original Chapter and who is unable to obtain a satisfactory reply regarding a transfer can be accepted as a member-at-large upon application to the Grand Secretary.

(d) A member-at-large in good standing may apply for affiliation with any Chapter.

315.15 Senior DeMolays.

(a) When a member of the Order reaches the age of twenty-one, his active membership in the Order ends unless serving as an elected International, Congress or Jurisdictional Officer who was installed in office prior to his twenty-first birthday. Such officers shall not be reclassified as Senior DeMolays until completion of the term of office or resignation or removal therefrom, whichever occurs first.

(b) A Senior DeMolay who does not hold a Senior DeMolay certificate or a Life Membership card cannot, as such, visit any DeMolay Chapter.

(c) A Senior DeMolay who holds a Senior DeMolay certificate or Life Membership card will be permitted to visit a DeMolay Chapter, but without the right to participate in the business or activities of the Order, except as provided in these rules and regulations. (2009)

315.16 Former Member May Secure Senior DeMolay Certificate. A former DeMolay may secure a Senior DeMolay certificate by making application to the Grand Secretary.

315.17 Charter Members. All members initiated into or affiliated with a Chapter prior to the granting of a Charter are Charter Members.

315.18 Resignations. An Active or Senior DeMolay may resign his membership and request that his name be removed from the Chapter and DeMolay International rolls by written letter to the Advisory Council and the Executive Officer in the case of an active DeMolay, and to the Grand Secretary and the Executive Officer, in the case of a Senior member. 322.6 Appropriations. The Chapter cannot use or permit the use of any of its funds for any purpose other than the payment of the necessary expenses of the Chapter in accordance with the approved budget of the Chapter. KEY AWARDS

ADVISOR'S HONOR KEY

The Advisor's Honor Key is awarded annually to a member of an Advisory Council of a Chapter that has met the following requirements:

1. The Advisory Council Registration must be received in the Grand Secretary's office by the deadline.
2. The net year-end chapter membership must exceed the net year-end chapter membership for the previous DeMolay Year.

3. New members initiated in the DeMolay Year must equal or exceed the new members initiated in the previous DeMolay Year.

4. The form on which to report the name and address of the member of the Advisory Council recommended to receive this recognition must be completed and returned to the Grand Secretary's office. This form must be requested from the DeMolay Service and Leadership Center. The chapter advisor, as the contact man of the Advisory Council, has the major responsibility for Chapter management and program development and in most Chapters he should receive the Advisor's Honor Key. In certain cases some other member of the Advisory Council may be more entitled to the award. If the same individual is awarded more than one key, a star is added to the background of each successive key. Only one key can be awarded to a Chapter in each DeMolay Year.

ZERUBBABEL KEY

The purpose of the Zerubbabel Key is to encourage the establishment of new Chapters or the reinstatement of forfeited Chapters. It may be presented to any member of DeMolay International, and up to three keys may be granted for each new or reinstated Chapter. If an eligible individual is chiefly responsible for organizing a new or reinstated Chapter, he or she can be recommended for a Zerubbabel Key. Every nomination for the Zerubbabel Key must be approved by the Executive Officer of the Jurisdiction in which the Chapter is located.

BLUE HONOR KEY

The Blue Honor Key is awarded for being the first line signer on ten applications that are accepted by the Chapter. These ten applications need not be secured for any one class or in any one year. The Blue Honor Key is awarded only to an active member of a Chapter or to a Senior DeMolay who holds a Senior DeMolay certificate. An active member who secures fewer than ten applications before he reaches his majority may complete the list after he reaches his majority provided he holds a Senior DeMolay certificate. REPRESENTATIVE DEMOLAY AWARD

The Representative DeMolay Award is the highest self-achievement distinction a DeMolay can earn. The RD signifies that he has analyzed his strengths and weaknesses in abilities, knowledge, and skills. It is hoped that every DeMolay can evaluate his progress in the fields of mental, physical, social, economic, and spiritual developments through the RD program, thus recognizing the areas in which he has made sufficient progress as well as those which need further emphasis. The RD program includes not only the official activities participated in by all Chapter members but also a great variety of activities affecting large or small groups of DeMolays or merely individual members. Becoming an RD is based on a young man's cultivation of self-development, the knowledge and the practices of good citizenship in the home, the community, the nation, and the world at large. A DeMolay must have a minimum of six months membership by the time he files his application for Representative DeMolay. The jurisdiction may establish a time line for completing and returning the final evaluation form. A Senior DeMolay is eligible to be recognized as a Representative DeMolay if he continues to show an active interest in the work of the Order. The Representative DeMolay application form is returned to the Executive Officer (or his designated representative). The Executive Officer (or his designated representative) in turn will forward, to the DeMolay, the final evaluation form to be completed.

After obtaining the required signatures for the final evaluation form (Advisory Council Chairman, or Chapter Advisor and Representative DeMolay Advisor) the evaluation is then forwarded to the Executive Officer (or his designated representative).

MERIT BARS

Merit Bars may be awarded to DeMolays as a recognition of achievement in some phase of Chapter activity. They are awarded to individual Chapter members upon the recommendation of the Awards advisor, or a Court of Honor consisting of members of the Advisory Council, Legionnaires, or other adults designated by the Advisory Council. Each merit award is produced in five colors with each color designating the number of times a DeMolay has received an award in that category. The color designation is:

- 1st award – White
- 2nd award – Red
- 3rd award – Blue
- 4th award – Purple
- 5th award – Gold

Upon receipt of each additional award, the DeMolay will “turn in” his present bar in that category and receive the next higher award. As a result, at no time would a DeMolay display more than one merit bar in each category. Once a DeMolay has earned the gold award for a particular merit bar, he is not eligible for any further awards for that bar. The Merit Bars may be ordered from the DeMolay and More Store at DeMolay Service and Leadership Center. The Merit Bar Program should be supervised by the awards advisor of each Chapter with the final decisions as to an individual meeting the requirements for each bar being made by the Advisory Council. The basic requirements for the earning of each Merit Bar will be as follows: (2016)
