Section 1.2 Warrant. The warrant of this Lodge is the charter, granted on the 18th day of December, A.D. 2004, by The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, to whose Regulations and Edicts the most explicit respect and obedience shall ever be paid by its members.

ARTICLE II- MEETINGS

Section 2.1 Regular. The regular meetings of this Lodge shall be held on the first Thursday in each month. During the months of July and August, the lodge may be “dark”, and cease to hold meetings.

Section 2.2 Special. Special Meetings may be called from time to time, as the Lodge or Master may direct, to include the months of July and August. This Lodge shall not convene on Sunday, except for funeral purposes.

Section 2.3 Place & Time. The regular meetings of this Lodge shall be at the Ogden Masonic Temple, located at 1240 Twentieth Street & Harrison Boulevard Ogden, Utah 84401. The hour of regular meetings shall be (19:30 hours) 7:30 PM. The hour of Special Meetings shall be determined by the Worshipful Master.

Section 2.4 Representatives. This Lodge shall be represented at each Annual Grand Lodge Communication of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah

Section 2.3 Minutes & Records. The Minutes of all Meetings, including Special Meetings shall be documented as per the instructions Sections 3-4-16 of the Masonic Code of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah.

ARTICLE III- OFFICERS, THEIR ELECTION AND INSTALLATION

Section 3.1 Officers. The officers of this Lodge shall be the Worshipful Master, Senior Warden, Junior Warden, Treasurer, Secretary, Chaplain, Senior Deacon, Junior Deacon, Senior Steward, Junior Steward, Tyler, and three Trustees; to these may be added a Marshal and an Organist.

Section 3.2 Election. The Worshipful Master, Senior Warden, Junior Warden, Treasurer, Secretary, and one Trustee for a term of three years, shall be elected annually by ballot. All other officers shall be appointed by the Master on or before the date of his installation.

Section 3.3 Time and Method of Voting. At the first regular meeting in November of each year, the election of Officers shall be held for the ensuing Masonic year. No member is entitled to a vote, nor can he be elected or appointed to any office, who is not clear on the books of the Lodge. A majority of all the votes cast shall be necessary for a choice. Blank votes shall not be counted.

Section 3.4 Electioneering. Electioneering in any way for office is positively prohibited, and any member determined guilty of the offense shall be ineligible to hold office, and if the offending Brother is an officer, he shall forfeit the office held by him. Visitors electioneering for any candidate for office shall be dealt with by the Master.

Section 3.5 Eligibility. No member can be elected Worshipful Master who has not been duly elected and regularly installed as a Master or a Warden of some legally chartered Lodge.

Section 3.6 Dual Office. No member shall hold more than one office in this Lodge at the same time, except as provided in Section 3-4-1, "Regulations Relative to Lodges." of the Masonic Code of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah.

Section 3.7 Installation. The installation of officers shall take place in December of each year, on or before St. John's Day, except as otherwise provided in the Regulations of the Masonic Code of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah.

Section 3.8 Not by Proxy. No officer of this Lodge can be installed by proxy.

ARTICLE IV- DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 4.1 The Worshipful Master. In addition to those duties which are set forth in the Regulations of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah Grand Lodge, those which appertain to every individual Mason, and those which are traditional and therefore unwritten, the duties of the Worshipful Master are:

- First. To open and preside over the Lodge when present, and make all necessary provisions for the faithful performance of those duties when absent.
- Second. To preserve the charter of the Lodge with unfailing care, and deliver it to his successor in office, or to the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, or to the Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, when demanded.
- Third. To see that these By-laws are duly understood, respected, and obeyed by its members.
- Fourth. To take command of the other officers, and claim of them at any time, advice and assistance on any business relative to the Craft.
- Fifth. To see that the proper officers collect and truly keep the moneys of the Lodge; to see that the furniture and other valuables are not wasted, damaged, or lost, and in the event of the Charter being forfeited or surrendered, to preserve these things subject to the order of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, or of the Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah.

- Sixth. To see that all unmasonic conduct that comes to his knowledge is faithfully dealt with according to the By-Laws of this Lodge and the Trial Code of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah.
- Seventh. To guarantee a fair trial to every one charged with a Masonic offense.
- Eighth. To preside at the burial services of deceased Master Masons buried by the Lodge.
- Ninth. To see that worthy Brothers, visitors from other Lodges, have courteous attention and a welcome to this Lodge.
- Tenth. To give the deciding vote at any time, in the event of a tie.
- Eleventh. To decide all questions of order and procedure, subject to an appeal to the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, or to the Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah.

Section 4.2 The Senior Warden. In addition to those duties which are set forth in the Regulations of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah which appertain to every individual Mason, and those which are traditional, and therefore unwritten, the duties of the Senior Warden are:

- First. To succeed to, and to exercise all the powers of the Worshipful Master in the event of his absence.
- Second. To take charge of the Craft during the hours of labor.
- Third. To act as Chairman of the Educational and Grievance Committees.

Section 4.3 The Junior Warden. In addition to those duties which are set forth in the Regulations of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah which appertain to every individual Mason, and those which are traditional, and therefore unwritten, the duties of the Junior Warden are:

- First. To succeed to, and to exercise all the powers of the Worshipful Master in the absence of the two officers above him.
- Second. To take charge of the Craft during the hour of refreshment.
- Third. To act as Chairman of the Charity and Auditing Committees.

Section 4.4 Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the following duties:

- First. To receive and safely keep all moneys and property of every kind which shall be placed in his hands by the Secretary, or by order of the Lodge, and to give proper receipts therefore.
- Second. To disburse or transfer the same, or any part thereof, upon the order of the Master with the consent of the Lodge, duly attested by the Secretary.
- Third. To keep a book or books, which shall contain a correct statement of his receipts and disbursements on account of the Lodge.
- Fourth. To make to the Lodge at the regular meetings in June and December a report of its receipts, disbursements, and financial condition.
- Fifth. He shall execute and file a corporate surety bond in the amount not less than the funds in his possession at the close of the fiscal year prior thereto.

Section 4.5 Secretary. The Secretary shall have the following duties:

- First. To record all the proceedings of the Lodge proper to be written including its current receipts, disbursements, and all financial reports, and to submit such record to the Lodge at its next regular meeting for approval or correction and to the Master for his signature. Minutes cannot be read and approved unless regularly entered in permanent form.
- Second. To prepare and transmit a copy of such records, or any part thereof to the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, or to the Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, when required to do so.
- Third. To collect and receive all moneys due the Lodge, giving his receipt thereof, and to pay them promptly to the Treasurer, taking his receipt for the same.
- Fourth. To make to the Lodge an annual report of its work, of the condition of its accounts with its officers and members, and of all other matters relating to its finances and business which may be under his care.
- Fifth. To keep a cash book and ledger, and such other books as are required by the Regulations of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah.
- Sixth. To keep the seal of the Lodge, and to affix it with his attestation to all papers issued under authority of the Lodge, or in obedience to the requirements of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah.

- Seventh. To preserve the By-laws of the Lodge, the Book of Constitutions, By-laws, and Regulations of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, its published proceedings, Rituals, and the Book of Ceremonials.
- Eighth. To notify any member of the Lodge who may have been suspended, expelled, or reinstated immediately after the action of the Lodge, and also to notify the Secretary of any other Lodge of which such suspended or expelled member is a member as shown by the Lodge records of the fact of such suspension, expulsion, or reinstatement.
- Ninth. To study the rules and forms prescribed by the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, and to keep the records, books, and other papers in accordance therewith.
- Tenth. To include in his annual returns to the Grand Secretary, the names of members of the Lodge, who have died during the year and submit to the Grand Secretary a certified copy of the initiation, passing, and raising of all candidates for the degrees, and of their proficiency in the catechisms of the Master Mason Degree.
- Eleventh. He shall execute and file a corporate surety bond in the amount not less than the funds in his possession at the close of the fiscal year prior thereto.

Section 4.6 Tyler. The Tyler, in addition to the necessary duties of his office, shall perform the following duties:

- First. He shall serve all notices and summonses except, as the Master shall otherwise order.
- Second. He shall preserve the aprons, jewels and other paraphernalia of the Lodge.
- Third. He shall perform such other services as the may be required of him by the Lodge, or designated by the Worshipful Master, and shall receive such compensation for his services as the Lodge may determine.

Section 4.7 Trustees. The Three Year Trustee [see Section 3.2] shall be the Chairman of the Trustees, whose acts shall be subjects to revision by the Lodge or of the Worshipful Master. They may from time to time, be called upon for their experience and counsel to assist the Auditing Committee. Additionally, their responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- First. The Trustees of this Lodge shall hold and take title to, and invest all funds as Trustees of Golden Spike Lodge No 6.
- Second. They shall collect all interest due the Lodge, and pay the same over to the Secretary.
- Third. They shall at least annually examine and audit the books, accounts, vouchers, and records of the Treasurer and Secretary.

- Fifth. They shall execute and file corporate surety bonds to the Lodge in the amount not less than the funds in their possession at the close of the fiscal year prior thereto for the faithful performance of their duties.

ARTICLE V- STANDING AND SPECIAL COMMITTEES

Section 5.1 Standing Committees. There shall be four (4) standing committees for this Lodge, which shall be appointed by the Worshipful Master immediately after his installation. These Committees are:

Section 5.2 Charity Committee. The Committee on Charity shall consist of the Worshipful Master, Senior and Junior Wardens, and shall have the power to draw upon the Treasury a sum not to exceed $100.00 during any one year in any individual case, for the relief of a distressed worthy brother, his wife, widow, or orphans, without express authority from the Lodge, except in case of death or other serious emergency, when not to exceed $200.00 may be expended without authority. These relief actions by the committee are limited to no more than two occurrences per year. All further withdrawals for the relief of a distressed worthy brother, his wife, widow, or orphans shall require the consent of the Lodge.

Section 5.3 Grievance Committee. The Committee on Grievances shall consist of (3) three members of the Lodge. The Senior Warden shall be chairman, to which all differences between Brethren shall be referred. It shall be the duty of this committee to reconcile Brethren to each other, where ill-feelings exist, as soon as the same shall come to their knowledge, and to safeguard the reputations and well being of parties concerned.

Section 5.4 Auditing Committee. The Auditing Committee shall consist of (3) three members, of which the Junior Warden shall be the chairman, whose duty it shall be to examine and audit all claims presented against the Lodge. The committee shall have general supervision over the budget prepared and presented to the Lodge by the Worshipful Master.

Section 5.5 Education Committee. The Committee on Education shall consist of (3) three members, of which the Senior Warden shall be the chairman. The Committee shall be responsible for carrying on programs of Masonic Education in the Lodge.

Section 5.6 Special Committee. The Worshipful Master shall appoint such special committees as he may deem necessary.

ARTICLE VI- PETITIONS, BALLOTING, AND MEMBERSHIP

Section 6.1 Petitions. All petitions for the three degrees or for membership by affiliation or for advancement shall be made in writing and signed by the applicant with his own hand, with his given name or names in full; shall state the place and date of birth and present residence, age, occupation, and such other facts as are called for in the Form of Petition for the Degrees, adopted by of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, and shall be accompanied by the fee(s) prescribed in these By-laws. Every petition shall be recommended in writing by (2) two members of this Grand Jurisdiction or of a Grand Jurisdiction recognized as “Regular” by the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, except as provided in Sections 3-7-2 and 3-7-3, “Regulations Relative to Lodges,” and be presented at a regular meeting and noted upon the records.

Section 6.2 Investigation Committee. Every such petition shall be referred to a Committee on Investigation, consisting of (3) three members who shall after investigation pursuant to Grand Lodge Regulations of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, as provided in Section 3-7-2, Section 3-7-3, and Section 3-7-4; and shall report thereon in writing, at the regular meeting not less than three weeks thereafter, unless for good cause further time is granted.

Section 6.3 Ballot. Upon the reception of the Investigation Committee’s report, whether the report is favorable or unfavorable, the petition shall be balloted upon. The Worshipful Master shall declare the result of the ballot. In the event the applicant is rejected, the fee accompanying the petition shall be returned to the petitioner. No ballot shall be taken upon any petition at any other than a regular meeting of the Lodge.

Section 6.4 Withdrawal. A petition for the degrees cannot be withdrawn or returned after having been received at a regular meeting of the Lodge, except for want of jurisdiction; provided, that a petition which has been acted upon favorably, by the Lodge may be returned, together with the fee, to an applicant who has moved his residence out of the Jurisdiction before receiving the Entered Apprentice Degree.

Section 6.5 Affiliation Withdrawal. The petition of a Master Mason for affiliation may be withdrawn at any time before the ballot.

Section 6.6 Number of Ballots. There shall be but (1) one ballot for the three degrees, which must be free and secret; and in balloting for the degrees or for affiliation, if more than (1) one negative vote appears the balloting shall cease, and the candidate shall be declared rejected. If only (1) one negative vote appears a second ballot shall immediately take place, and if a negative still appears the candidate shall be declared rejected; under no circumstances shall more than (2) two ballots be permitted. No discussion on a petition shall be allowed, except to establish the identity of the petitioner.

Section 6.7 Separate Ballot. In balloting upon petitions for the degrees or for affiliation, each petition shall be acted upon separately, and every member of the Lodge present must vote.

Section 6.8. By-laws and Apron. Every Master Mason becoming a member of this Lodge shall sign his name in full to these By-laws before being entitled to vote therein. This Lodge shall present to every candidate a copy of these By-laws and a lambskin or white leather apron upon which shall be inscribed his name and the dates of his Initiation, Passing, and Raising.

Section 6.9 Life Membership. As provided in Section 3-6-5 of the Masonic Code of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, this Lodge may by 2/3 (Two-Thirds) Majority Vote, confer Life Membership on a Member of this Lodge. Any Life Member of this Lodge is entitled to a duly authenticated certificate showing such life membership and shall be issued an annual dues card.

Section 6.10 Honorary Membership. This Lodge may confer honorary membership upon any Master Mason who is a member of some other regular and well governed lodge, of this Grand Jurisdiction or of a Grand Jurisdiction recognized as “Regular” by the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah but such honorary membership shall not confer any of the rights of regular membership.

ARTICLE VII- FEES AND DUES

Section 7.1 Fees. The fee(s) required to receive the (3) three degrees of in Masonry in this Lodge shall be paid according to the following Table of Fees:

Entered Apprentice Degree	$75.00
Fellow-Craft Degree	$75.00
Master Mason Degree	$75.00
TOTAL	$225.00

The prescribed fee(s) shall be paid in advance of receiving each degree. No petition can be processed for consideration by the membership, unless it is accompanied by the minimum fee; the fee for the Entered apprentice degree must always accompany the petition in the amount not less than $75.00. When all degrees are complete the lodge will provide a Monitor, Utah Grand Lodge Cypher, Patent, Working Tools, and a pair of White Gloves.

Section 7.2 Fee Must Be Paid. This Lodge shall not confer any degree until the prescribed fee shall have been paid; nor shall any written or verbal promise to pay the same be received in lieu thereof, nor shall any portion of the fee be remitted, either directly or indirectly.

Section 7.3 Forfeiture. This Lodge may retain the fee of a candidate elected to receive the degrees if he does not present himself for initiation within a period of (12) twelve months after election.

Section 7.4 Dues. The annual dues of this lodge shall be $65 per annum, payable in advance effective for the Masonic year 2018. Dues are to be paid no later than the 31st day of December, for the following Masonic year. The dues stated in these Bylaws are lodge dues. They do not include any fees or any other mandatory fees, assessments, taxes, or dues assessed by the Grand Lodge of Utah. An increase of any fees assessed by the Grand Lodge of Utah will be added to the dues of Golden Spike Lodge #6. The fees in addition to dues required to be collected from The Grand Lodge of Utah include but not limited to Per Capita Fee, George Washington Masonic National Memorial. The dues for Golden Spike Lodge #6 do not include any additional assessments, fees, or rents assessed by the Ogden Masonic Temple Association.

Section 7.4.1 Prorated Dues. Any new member for affiliation or a newly raised member shall have their membership dues prorated. They shall be charged (1/12) one twelfth of the established yearly dues for each full month of the year that is remaining.

Section 7.5 Suspension- Non Payment of Dues. Any member of this Lodge being (12) twelve months in arrears for dues, and residing within the jurisdiction of this, the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, shall be notified by the Secretary, that unless within (4) four weeks, or if residing outside of this jurisdiction, within (8) eight weeks from the date of the regular meeting at which such delinquency shall be made known to the Lodge in such manner as the Worshipful Master may direct, his dues shall be paid, or sickness, or inability to pay be shown as the cause of such refusal or neglect, he will be liable to suspension from all the rights and privileges of Masonry. If neither of the foregoing excuses be made, he may at the first regular meeting after the expiration of the specified time, be declared by the Worshipful Master of the Lodge to be suspended, unless the Lodge shall remit his dues or grant him further time for payment.

Section 7.6 How Restored. Any member thus suspended, who shall thereafter pay the arrearages due at the time of his suspension, or who shall have such arrearages remitted by this Lodge, and who shall request reinstatement, may be restored to membership and to all the rights and privileges of Masonry, upon a favorable vote of a majority of all the members present. In the event of his rejection, the amount of arrearages paid by him shall be refunded.

Section 7.7 Reinstatement- Time and Manner of Voting. No vote upon any request for reinstatement shall be taken earlier than at the regular meeting following the regular meeting at which such request is presented, nor until there shall have been submitted to the Lodge, the written report of a committee of (3) three appointed by the Worshipful Master, whose duty it shall be to inquire into the character and conduct of the applicant for reinstatement, and the circumstances attending his suspension; who shall, when possible, consult the persons who then held the offices of Worshipful Master and Secretary at the time of such suspension; and such vote, when taken, shall be by written ballot.

ARTICLE VIII- VISITORS

Section 8.1 Visitors. A Master Mason in good standing of this Grand Jurisdiction or of a Grand Jurisdiction recognized as “Regular” by the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah may be extended the privilege to visit this Lodge subject to the right of any member thereof to object to his admission as a visitor.

Section 8.2 Avouchment. No visitor shall be admitted to this Lodge unless he is lawfully vouched for, or sufficiently examined and found to be a Master Mason or a brother of the degree in which the Lodge is working of this Grand Jurisdiction or of a Grand Jurisdiction recognized as “Regular” by the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah. Documentary evidence alone shall not be sufficient to justify an avouchment. In addition to strict trial and due examination, no Mason shall be permitted to visit this Lodge unless he can and does produce written evidence under the seal of his Lodge that he is in good standing and this evidence must be attested by the Grand Secretary’s signature and the Seal of the Grand Lodge under which the Lodge of the visitor is working; provided, that it shall not be necessary to have such evidence so attested by the Grand Secretary when the visitor comes from a Jurisdiction where this is not required.

Section 8.3 Examining Committee. The committee appointed by the Worshipful Master to examine one who presents himself to visit must consist of at least (2) two members. The Worshipful Master alone may not conduct the examination. A visitor has no right to demand an inspection of the Lodge Charter.

ARTICLE IX- NON-AFFILIATED MASONS

Section 9.1 Non-Affiliated Masons. It is contrary to the spirit and precepts of Masonry for a Mason not affiliated with a Blue Lodge to reside within the jurisdiction of this Lodge without making an effort to become a member hereof.

Section 9.2 Penalty for Non-Affiliation. A non-affiliated Mason sojourning in this, the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah shall have the privilege of visiting this Lodge for a period of (6) six months. Unless such non-affiliated Mason shall petition some Lodge for membership within (30) thirty days thereafter, and if rejected shall contribute to some chartered Lodge in this Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah; its regular dues he shall be debarred from Masonic rights and privileges as follows:

- First: He shall not be allowed to visit any Lodge.
- Second: He shall not be allowed to appear in any Masonic procession.
- Third: He shall not be entitled to Masonic charity.
- Fourth: He shall not be entitled to a Masonic funeral.
- Fifth: He shall be deemed a drone in the hive of Masonry and unworthy of the protection of Masons.

Section 9.3 Discipline. This Lodge has the right to exercise discipline for any violation of Masonic Law over all non-affiliated Masons residing or sojourning within its jurisdiction.

Section 9.4 Trial. All trials in this Lodge shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions contained in the “Trial Code of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah”.

ARTICLE X- DIMITS & DIPLOMAS

Section 10.1 Dimits. With the exception of the Worshipful Master and the (2) two Wardens, any member of this Lodge, against whom no charges are pending, may withdraw therefrom upon payment of all dues, and giving notice, in person or in writing signed by himself, of such withdrawal at a regular meeting; and a dimit (or certificate of standing) shall be issued to him without a vote of the Lodge. (See Chap. X, The Masonic Code of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah- Regulations)

ARTICLE XI- DISCIPLINE

Section 11.1 Offenses. Any member of this Lodge who willfully violates the moral law, the Regulations of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah, the Ancient Charges of a Freemason, the By-laws of the Lodge, or the laws of the country--or disregards his obligations and the established usages of Freemasonry, or does any act which shall tend to impair the purity of the Fraternity, or makes any misrepresentation for the purpose of obtaining the degrees of Freemasonry, is liable to Masonic discipline as provided in the Trial Code of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah.

Section 11.2 Revealing Transactions. Any member or visitor who shall reveal any of the transactions of this Lodge, either directly or indirectly, or who shall disclose any of its proceedings not proper to be made public, is liable to Masonic discipline.

Section 11.3 Obedience to Summons. Every member of this Lodge shall faithfully obey, if within his power, a summons issued by this Lodge and duly served upon him. For failure to do so, he shall be liable to discipline in the manner provided by law unless excused for reasons satisfactory to a majority of the members present at a regular meeting of the Lodge.

ARTICLE XII- PROHIBITIONS

Section 12.1 Use of Masonic Name or Emblem. No member of this Lodge shall use, or be a party to the use of the Masonic name as a part of the title or designation of any business, firm, concern, company, association, or enterprise organized or prosecuted for profit or for a livelihood, unless such business shall consist exclusively of the printing or publishing of Masonic books, papers, or periodicals, or the manufacture and sale of Masonic supplies. The use of Masonic emblems and devices on business cards or signs, or by way of advertisement, is strictly forbidden.

Section 12.2 Discussions. The discussion of political, sectarian, or other subjects not of a proper Masonic nature is prohibited in this Lodge.

Section 12.3 Begging Letters. No member of this Lodge shall give a certificate whereby any Mason may, in an itinerant manner, apply for relief to sister Lodges in this Jurisdiction or elsewhere.

Section 12.4 Processions. This Lodge shall not appear in public processions on any other than purely Masonic occasions unless approved by in writing under the signature of and under the guidelines of the Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah.

Section 12.5 Lending Money to Members. This Lodge shall not lend money to any of its members for any reason; whatsoever.

Section 12.6 Lotteries. This Lodge and all members thereof are strictly forbidden to give, or attempt to give, the aid or countenance of Masonry in organized or individual form to any lottery or gift enterprise.

Section 12.7 Smoking. Smoking in the Lodge Room at any time is strictly prohibited.

Section 12.8 Indebtedness. No member is entitled to incur indebtedness chargeable to this Lodge, or obligate its members or its funds without the vote and consent of a majority of the Lodge members present at its regular business meeting.

ARTICLE XIII- RULES OF ORDER

Section 13.1 Order of Business. The normal order of business at meetings of this Lodge shall be as follows:

- First Reading of the minutes.
- Second Reports of committees.
- Third Balloting.
- Fourth Reception of petitions.
- Fifth. Miscellaneous and unfinished business.
- Sixth Conferring of degrees.

ARTICLE XIV- AMENDMENTS

Section 14.1 How Made. Any and all amendments to these By-laws shall be proposed in writing at a regular meeting of the Lodge, and the Secretary shall promptly give written notice thereof to all members whose residence is known. The proposal shall lie over until the next regular meeting, when by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting, such amendment may be adopted; provided, however, that no amendment shall have effect unless and until approval by the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah or the Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah.

Section 14.2 How Made. Should these By-Laws require amending due to changes in the Masonic Code of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Utah such amendments shall be made by a committee appointed by the Worshipful Master. All Lodge Members shall be made aware of such changes by written notice, and in due time shall be provided a copy of such revisions to these By-Laws.
